MAN has always looked to the stars for inspiration — his hopes, dreams that were to become great deeds . . . If we are to grow, to increase our worth to the world and to ourselves we must extend our hopes and aims. We must "Reach high . . . Reach far . . . Our goal the sky, Our aim the star."

Central boasts stars
is evident in this display of trophies.

PLANS FOR TOMORROW interest Principal James S. Carter and William Gates, assistant principal. Central High School is scheduled to have several new classrooms and other badly needed facilities within the next two years.

Great Day Is Coming!

To the casual visitor, Central High School has always been a smooth-running, efficient plant where thousands of students studied, went to and from classes, lunch, assembly programs and athletic events. There was never any crowding, rush, or confusion. But to Principal James S. Carter and William Gates, assistant principal, it was a headache that no aspirin or tranquilizer pills would cure. How do you accommodate 2200 students in a plant built for 1500? Triple sessions, 10 o'clock lunches, two or more teachers to one room . . . that's how! But the future glows bright; more classrooms are to be built and triple sessions will be history.

They Aim High

Thinking big is a requisite, these days, to serving on the Board of Education. So huge are the problems in an expanding school district such as ours that today's actualities make yesterday's "unrealistic" predictions seem indeed tame. Tomorrow's problems are now here!

Plans for a long-term expansion program calling for multi-million dollar bond issues have given the board more than their share of worries. But their experience, foresight, and wisdom give assurance that Phoenix Union High Schools will maintain their place near the top in America's great educational fields.

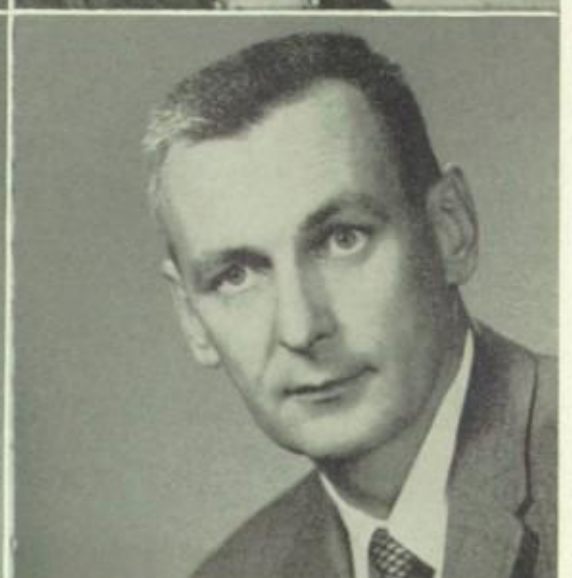

Often expressed is the board's hope that public interest in the schools will grow, along with the problems of expansion. Only when the citizens of the community take active part can the schools do their best for all concerned.

Supt. Bruce K. Moore

BOARD OF EDUCATION members include (top) Dr. Trevor G. Browne, Frank Haze Burch, Mrs. F. A. Bons;

For Us, Help When Needed

ALERT to the latest news are these secretaries! From left are Alice Hart, guidance; Eleanor Parks, vice principal's office; Kitty Sheen, principal's office; Betty Pretzer, receptionist.

Student leaders like to lead, but their self-confidence can use a boost now and then, as problems grow and projects appear ready to collapse. That's where the friendly advice of Mr. Pitts, Mr. Ball, and Mrs. Risley come to the rescue. "But don't underrate these high schoolers," earnestly declare the deans.

Bobcats have learned to depend on such guidance. Theirs is the fair judgment when a student has transgressed; theirs the word of encouragement when students see failure and disappointment ahead. Such friends are priceless to us. Often their sound advice will carry over for a full lifetime of worthy achievement.

HELLO! Friendly smiles light up the faces of Vice Principal Wayne Pitts, Boys' Adviser William A. Ball, and Mrs. Lucille Risley, dean of girls. Students crowd their offices at all hours seeking answers to problems.

PONDERING a discipline problem are Guidance Board members Tim Tuveson, Florence Howard, Bob Smelick, Board Adviser William Ball, Ann Kovacovich, and Gus Blanchard.

Fair Play Their Watchword

Chosen by their fellow students on the basis of citizenship, intelligence, and personality, members of the Guidance Board deal out justice with mercy to erring Bobcats who come afoul of the Merit System. Most importantly, the board insists on hearing all sides of the student's problem before making a decision.

This judicial part of our student government not only hands out demerits but also rescinds them when fair play dictates. But the quality of mercy must be kept strong with stern reality, too; our self-government system depends on enforcement. Our Guidance leaders are respected for their skill in a very difficult job.

SENATE SESSION: While Jim Walker introduces a motion, Senate members pay close attention. Lower left: Bob Smelick brings up a point of law in a sub-committee meeting. Other legislators are Moody, Waters, Blanchard, Ramenofsky, Boyd, Griffith, Spector, Ramras. Right: A lighter moment in Senate business was this scramble for office titles. Funsters include (standing) Carpenter, Weiss, Kelly, Burns, Heflin; seated, Armour, Newmark, Bate, Bob Kelly, Gus Blanchard, Murphy, Gold, and Pardee who compare notes and "titles" suitable for real senators.

New Freedom For Senators

Freedom of parliamentary procedure highlighted Central High School's Student Senate this year. Under this novel system, any senator may introduce a bill directly onto the floor. This was a forward step, members agreed, for in the past, a bill could be offered only by committee procedure, and meant long delays.

Another important advancement was the new system by which the general student body could be informed of Senate action. Liaisons, or representatives, were to be elected from each English class. They would then be informed of Senate accomplishments to be reported directly to the class each represented.

They Led Our Student Body

TOP QUALITY in leadership at Central was evident with Student Body President Bob Smelick at the helm. Outstanding also were Bonnie Anderson, treasurer; Bev Heflin, secretary; and Dave Burns, vice president. BELOW: Executive Committee members are (seated) Anderson, Jo Mabb, Peg Vanderhoff, Princess Humphrey, Carol Sullivan. STANDING: B. Heflin, Smelick, Griffith, Burns, Weiss, Sankey.

LEADERS in student government at Central made an enviable record for the school year 1959-1960. In its third year, Central took on the mature appearance of a much older school; the wholehearted support given to student projects, the citizenship displayed, and high scholastic standards are tributes to the quality of its leaders. Here the Executive Committee considers a measure for the early improvement of assembly programming.

PROTECT your cards with Alliance plastics! The boys made a good thing of this project. Officers watching operation are Phil Blende, president; Jerry Telfer, secretary; Bob Storrs, vice pres.; Mr. Lange; Dan Reynolds, treas.

We Rely On The Alliance

Student control—by students. That was a plan successfully followed this year at Central. Only with the co-operation of groups such as Boys' Alliance could Central's sprawling campus be kept under control for the betterment of all students. Other interests of the Alliance included the Stardust Ball, initiation of an Attendance Trophy at the basketball games.

Groundwork was laid, also, for a statewide association of boys' federations. If the plan is finally activated, the association proposes to examine and improve the goals of Boys' Alliance groups throughout Arizona. High light, perhaps, was the presentation to the student body of a Queen Trophy on which Alliance queens' names are to be enscribed.

BOYS' ALLIANCE Executive Committee included Mr. Lange, sponsor; Ken Weiss, Dave Levitas, Bob Storrs, Jerry Telfer, Mike Rhodes and (standing) Dan Reynolds and Phil Blende. Alliance included 1,000 C.H.S. boys.

Girls' League Goes Places

DEAN RISLEY and her League officers enjoy reports on their formal ball success. With Mrs. Risley are Jo Mabb, Nancy Coleman, Libby Bates, and Miss Eleanor Wallingford, their co-adviser.

Every girl at Central had an important part to play in the success of Girls' League. Weekly meetings by the representatives of four classes in addition to the Central Council gatherings kept everybody informed of the active program. The formal Oriental Ball in April was a high light, but that was only one of many projects to keep the girls on the alert.

League activities include a long list of good deeds: the Fashion Show; Bobcat Bounce; Mother-Daughter Tea; Christmas Families; Father-Daughter Banquet; Twirp Days. Girls served as hostesses at school functions; they conducted sales ranging from Voodoo Dolls to pickles. They are proudest of their plan to award scholarships to some worthy seniors.

GIRLS' LEAGUE Central Council in session. Seated: Kathy Shumate, Bev Johnson, Cindy Eisenbeiss, Nancy Davenport, Jenny Jekel, Joyce Branaman, Carol Sullivan, Gay

Buros. STANDING are league leaders Donna Dale, Suzie Steinman, Joanna Driscoll, Karen Seabury, Carolyn Black, Patti Cohn, Frances Martin, and Sandra Walmsley.

LOOKS GOOD to us, too! Julia McCann, Art Department chairman, hears praise for her painting from art teacher Leonard C. Johanson. They co-sponsor the Art Club. RIGHT: Industrial Arts director Harry Crockett, far right, demonstrates another kind of art to Barney Shehane, left, electronics, and Joe M. Garcia, auto mechanics. Mr. Crockett sponsors a coin club, Mr. Shehane, radio and electronics group, and Mr. Garcia coaches freshmen.

Teachers With A Message

It is important to know a lot about a number of things. But it is not always possible to become expert in everything. So, include among your friends those who are well-enough informed to qualify as experts in various fields. A good school supplies that need with instructors with varied experience and skills.

Whether you have a thirst for knowledge in the arts or sciences, much of your yearning for insight is sparked by daily contact with Central High School's teachers. Many could qualify as experts in the fine arts, in electronics, economics, letters. All pass the test of friendship and keen interest in youth.

TOPSY-TURVY world falls toward Beatrice Grevenberg, American History and Who's Who Club sponsor, while other social science teachers grin. From left are Scott G. Nelson, government, and sponsor of yearbook; Carleton Allen, World History, and Philip S. Smelser, also World History.

Let's Go Boom..!

READY, GO! It's Ladies' Day in the Music Department. Kathleen Hergt, vocal studios, readies the boom while William Bagwell, orchestra, and Harvey Zorn, band, wait with amusement. Ruth Hoesch, accompanist, is all set to clash the big cymbals with a cla-a-ng!

Music hath charms . . . to soothe us and to excite! Best of all, we can get a basic understanding in vocal and instrumental music from the experts, our Music Department faculty. Music, sometimes called a "frill" by those critics of progressive education, has proved to be one of our most wonderful experiences.

Social Education carries a wallop these days. Mainly, the courses deal with problems vital to world security. Summit conferences, foreign aid, the stock market fill us with reports, warnings and possible solutions. Social Studies make us aware it will help develop leaders. The world can utilize many capable statesmen.

WORLD'S OKAY NOW! Relieved to find the globe back on its axis are Edward S. Herzberg, department chairman, Social Sciences; Calvin Schenkel, government and Boys' Bowling Club sponsor; Partick O. Copley, American History and sponsor of freshman class; Mary L. Glover, World History and sponsor of Senior Girls League; Don Ellis, Southwest History and Parnassus Club sponsor; Clifford J. Prather, government and economics.

WHAT'S MY LINE? English teachers have fun playing the popular TV game with a prominent figure of the stage. Well, at least what has to do as a "stage" at Central. Dramatics Department Head Donald Krischak plays the part. SEATED are English teachers Mattie Hackett, sponsor of Blotters Club; Arthur Orman, Pep Club; Harold Lind; Lucille DeWitt; Elizabeth Leftwich, dramatics and Masque and Gavel. STANDING are Howard L. Beazley, English Department chairman; William Kendall, English, German, and adviser of the German Club.

Foes Of Semi-Illiteracy

War has been declared at Central High by a dedicated group of teachers with master's degrees in English. The enemy: semi-illiteracy. It is a sad fact that many high school students go through eight years of "grammar" school and four years of secondary school without achieving more than a feeble comprehension of English reading and writing. A new determination to teach Johnny how to read and write calls for increased emphasis on composition and literature study at Central High.

HARD WORKERS indeed are these teachers of English. SEATED and busy are John Morrow, Myrtle Goff, Rae Arnold, Chris Carnahan, tennis coach, and Marjory Dust-

For those interested in other English activities are courses in speech, drama, and journalism. Central's achievement has been high in these areas, with many students winning honors. Our school won top city honors in the Constitutional Speech Contest, state honors in the Central Echoes newspaper and national All American honors with its yearbook. Best of all, there is no limit put upon students who want to try their experimental wings in these currently great vocational and literary fields.

man. STANDING are Lu Boyle, Y-Teens; Virgil Lewis, Bridge Club; Zeno Johnson; Marjorie French; and John Hardaway, junior class adviser and JV tennis coach.

Four Years Of Good Advice

Four years of friendly guidance is offered every Bobcat on his enrollment at Central High. The school counselor assigned to him will take a personal interest in his welfare; problems will arise, but the student can count on help to solve those worries. Perhaps the first year is the most difficult, but once launched, the willing student finds smooth sailing as he nears graduation. Finally, his counselor will help him toward vocational and scholastic success in selecting after-graduation paths for which he is best suited.

No modern high schooler has had superior opportunities for a place of quiet and comfort to search for reference material than is offered at Central. Designed for utility and beauty, the well-arranged Library is a popular place for those who seek knowledge from books.

Vera Swanger, Paul Hatch, and Merle Lange. These well-informed teachers seek and find answers to our worries.

We Can Learn By Practice

THIS ONE looks good! Wilhelmina Satina takes a Christmas cookie from Bernice Kennedy while Margaret Christian approves. All are teachers of home economics and the occasion was the faculty Yuletide Tea. Home-making students prepared the goodies. Mrs. Christian sponsors FHA. Mrs. Kennedy is sophomore class adviser.

That life is not always a bowl of cherries is a lesson many learn too late. Some people always feel that Santa Claus takes care of those who wish hard enough; some hope for the best while doing little to prepare for the worst. Hence, it's a good thing we have teachers of such increasingly practical courses as Central's business education and home making!

SO, IT HAS FINALLY come to this! Apparently absorbed in cutting paper dolls are Business Education teachers. Actually they are helping to prepare a bulletin board display for the typing room. From left are Marvin J. Sordahl, who sponsors Fellowship Club; Betty McCubbin, Whether you finally wind up as a home maker or in a business office pursuing a career, the training offered at Central stresses the need to think one's problems out . . . all the way. Budgets can be planned and careers carved out if you learn the ropes. Central's faculty members have long-since learned from experience one must work at a job to learn.

Y-Teens; Edna Davis, Senior Class sponsor; John B. Caceletto, Business Education Department chairman and co-sponsor of Future Business Leaders; Virginia Hepburn, Pep Club co-sponsor; Benjamin W. Feiler, Key Club sponsor; Mancelyn Boykin, sponsor of Future Teachers of America.

See you next year!

*100% Excellent

SAAAY! WHAT gives? Busy Helen Thomas has enough Registration Office work to do without added burdens offered by fellow clerks Dorothy Schwarting, Eleanor Watts, and Patricia Robbins.

Audio-Visual, We Love You

Good! We're having a movie! During one semester Audio-Visual presented 802 films for 506 showings on subject matter that would fill a catalog. For example, Aeronautics ordered 15 films, 15 showings. Business Ed, 34 films and 117 showings covering bookkeeping, clerical training, salesmanship, and typing tips.

Citizenship classes saw 56 films for 515 showings; Drivers Ed 29 showings; English, 335 showings; Foreign Language 138; Homemaking, 136, Music, 5; Physical Ed, 36; Public Speaking, 79; Reading Center 203; Social Studies, 330; Science 603 showings. A-V is the only department busy the full nine periods.

WANT TO BE A WHEEL? A-V Director Elmer Felton explains film-rolling techniques to Gladys Wilke, A-V assistant; Marge Mertens, English and Journalism; Jean

Scientists With A Purpose

World attention is focused on science. The Atomic Age has barely got under way and the Space Age is crowding for action. Both concern the great minds of science and mathematics. More directly concerned are talented young people, for they will inherit today's advances in science and carry the initiative.

FROM ANY ANGLE math problems look interesting to this scholarly group! Mathematics Department Chairman Harry Phillips, seated left, holds conference with Norman Hingel, geometry and Skating Club; Gladys Hoelzle, solid geometry and junior adviser; Hugh H. Hackett, geometry and Skating Club; Mary E. Waller, general math and Student Senate; Delbert W. Littrell, geometry and algebra; standing—Charlayne Lobit, algebra; Kenneth Ride-nour, algebra, geometry, and National Honor Society; and Jeanette Lindsay, algebra, general math and Stamp Club.

Central High has excellent math and science faculties. They are well-trained, enthusiastic, and dedicated to inspiring students toward progressive goals. Recipients of fellowships and kindred honors for achievement, these teachers are well equipped to point the way toward a vastly better world through science.

QUICK, COOKIE, the answer! Girls' PE teachers seem to be playing the game of "What's the Solution?" to any of a dozen problems. Just as they smile here, Miss Colleen Cook, left, appears to have a cheerful answer ready. Other PE teachers are Joyce Sanders, GAA and Badminton Club; Mary Lou Branigan, department head and tennis; Harriett Mitten, GAA and archery. Miss Cook

Good Sports To Lead Us...

Ready, willing, and able characterize the physical education teachers. Trained to work with young people who need guidance in sportsmanship as well as body building, they supply inspiration that can carry their trainees through a lifetime of useful citizenship. Our physical education teachers have a background of success in college, with records of outstanding achievement in athletics. Competition sharpened their skills while conditioning them to an appreciation of fair play.

Physical training has had to compete with music, art, and other extra-curriculars for its devotees. But a well-equipped gymnasium, tennis courts, and fields have attracted a majority of Central's students. Especially successful have been the efforts to draw out freshmen, regardless of size and weight, to the football and track programs. Teaching sports is primarily the task of teaching good sportsmanship.

PTA Airs Teen Problems

Community service kept a dedicated group of adults on the jump all through 1959-60 at Central High. PTA officials, announcing they were "thinking big" for the school year, went into orbit early. In October they sponsored a turkey dinner and successful Open House program. "Vox Pop" in November aroused many lively comments, as did "Family Living" in January. February's "Frills" was perfection.

COFFEE BREAK! Having fun at a Foreign Language Department gathering are Hazel B. Redewill, chairman, and Le Cercle Francais sponsor; Beverly Hensing, Spanish and Spanish Club; Martha Robbins, Latin and Legio

With the theme, "Responsibility In a Changing World", PTA struck a responsive note with parents and patrons of Central High that had important results. Such thought-provoking topics as "Are Teenagers Human?" and "They're Driving Us Crazy!" stirred discussion on PTA nights. Graduation Week was a grand roundup for parents who helped plan for and supervise a wonderful senior party.

Faculty Fun!

CENTRAL'S FIRST Faculty Review wowed the faithful who stayed until 4 p.m. to see the teacher talent parade. For an hour and a half the peppy pedagogues danced, sang, played and cavorted just to prove that educators are human after all! With Kenneth Ridenour as MC, these acts were presented: Kinkston Trio, Pretzer & Watts, Nelson & Powell, Kitty Sheen, Coach Amster, Marich Trio, Bagwell One Man Band, Barbershop Quartet, and Mrs. Neff, piano. The Colonel Bogy "whistler" skit by Coaches Marich, Troutt, and Rouman stopped the show.

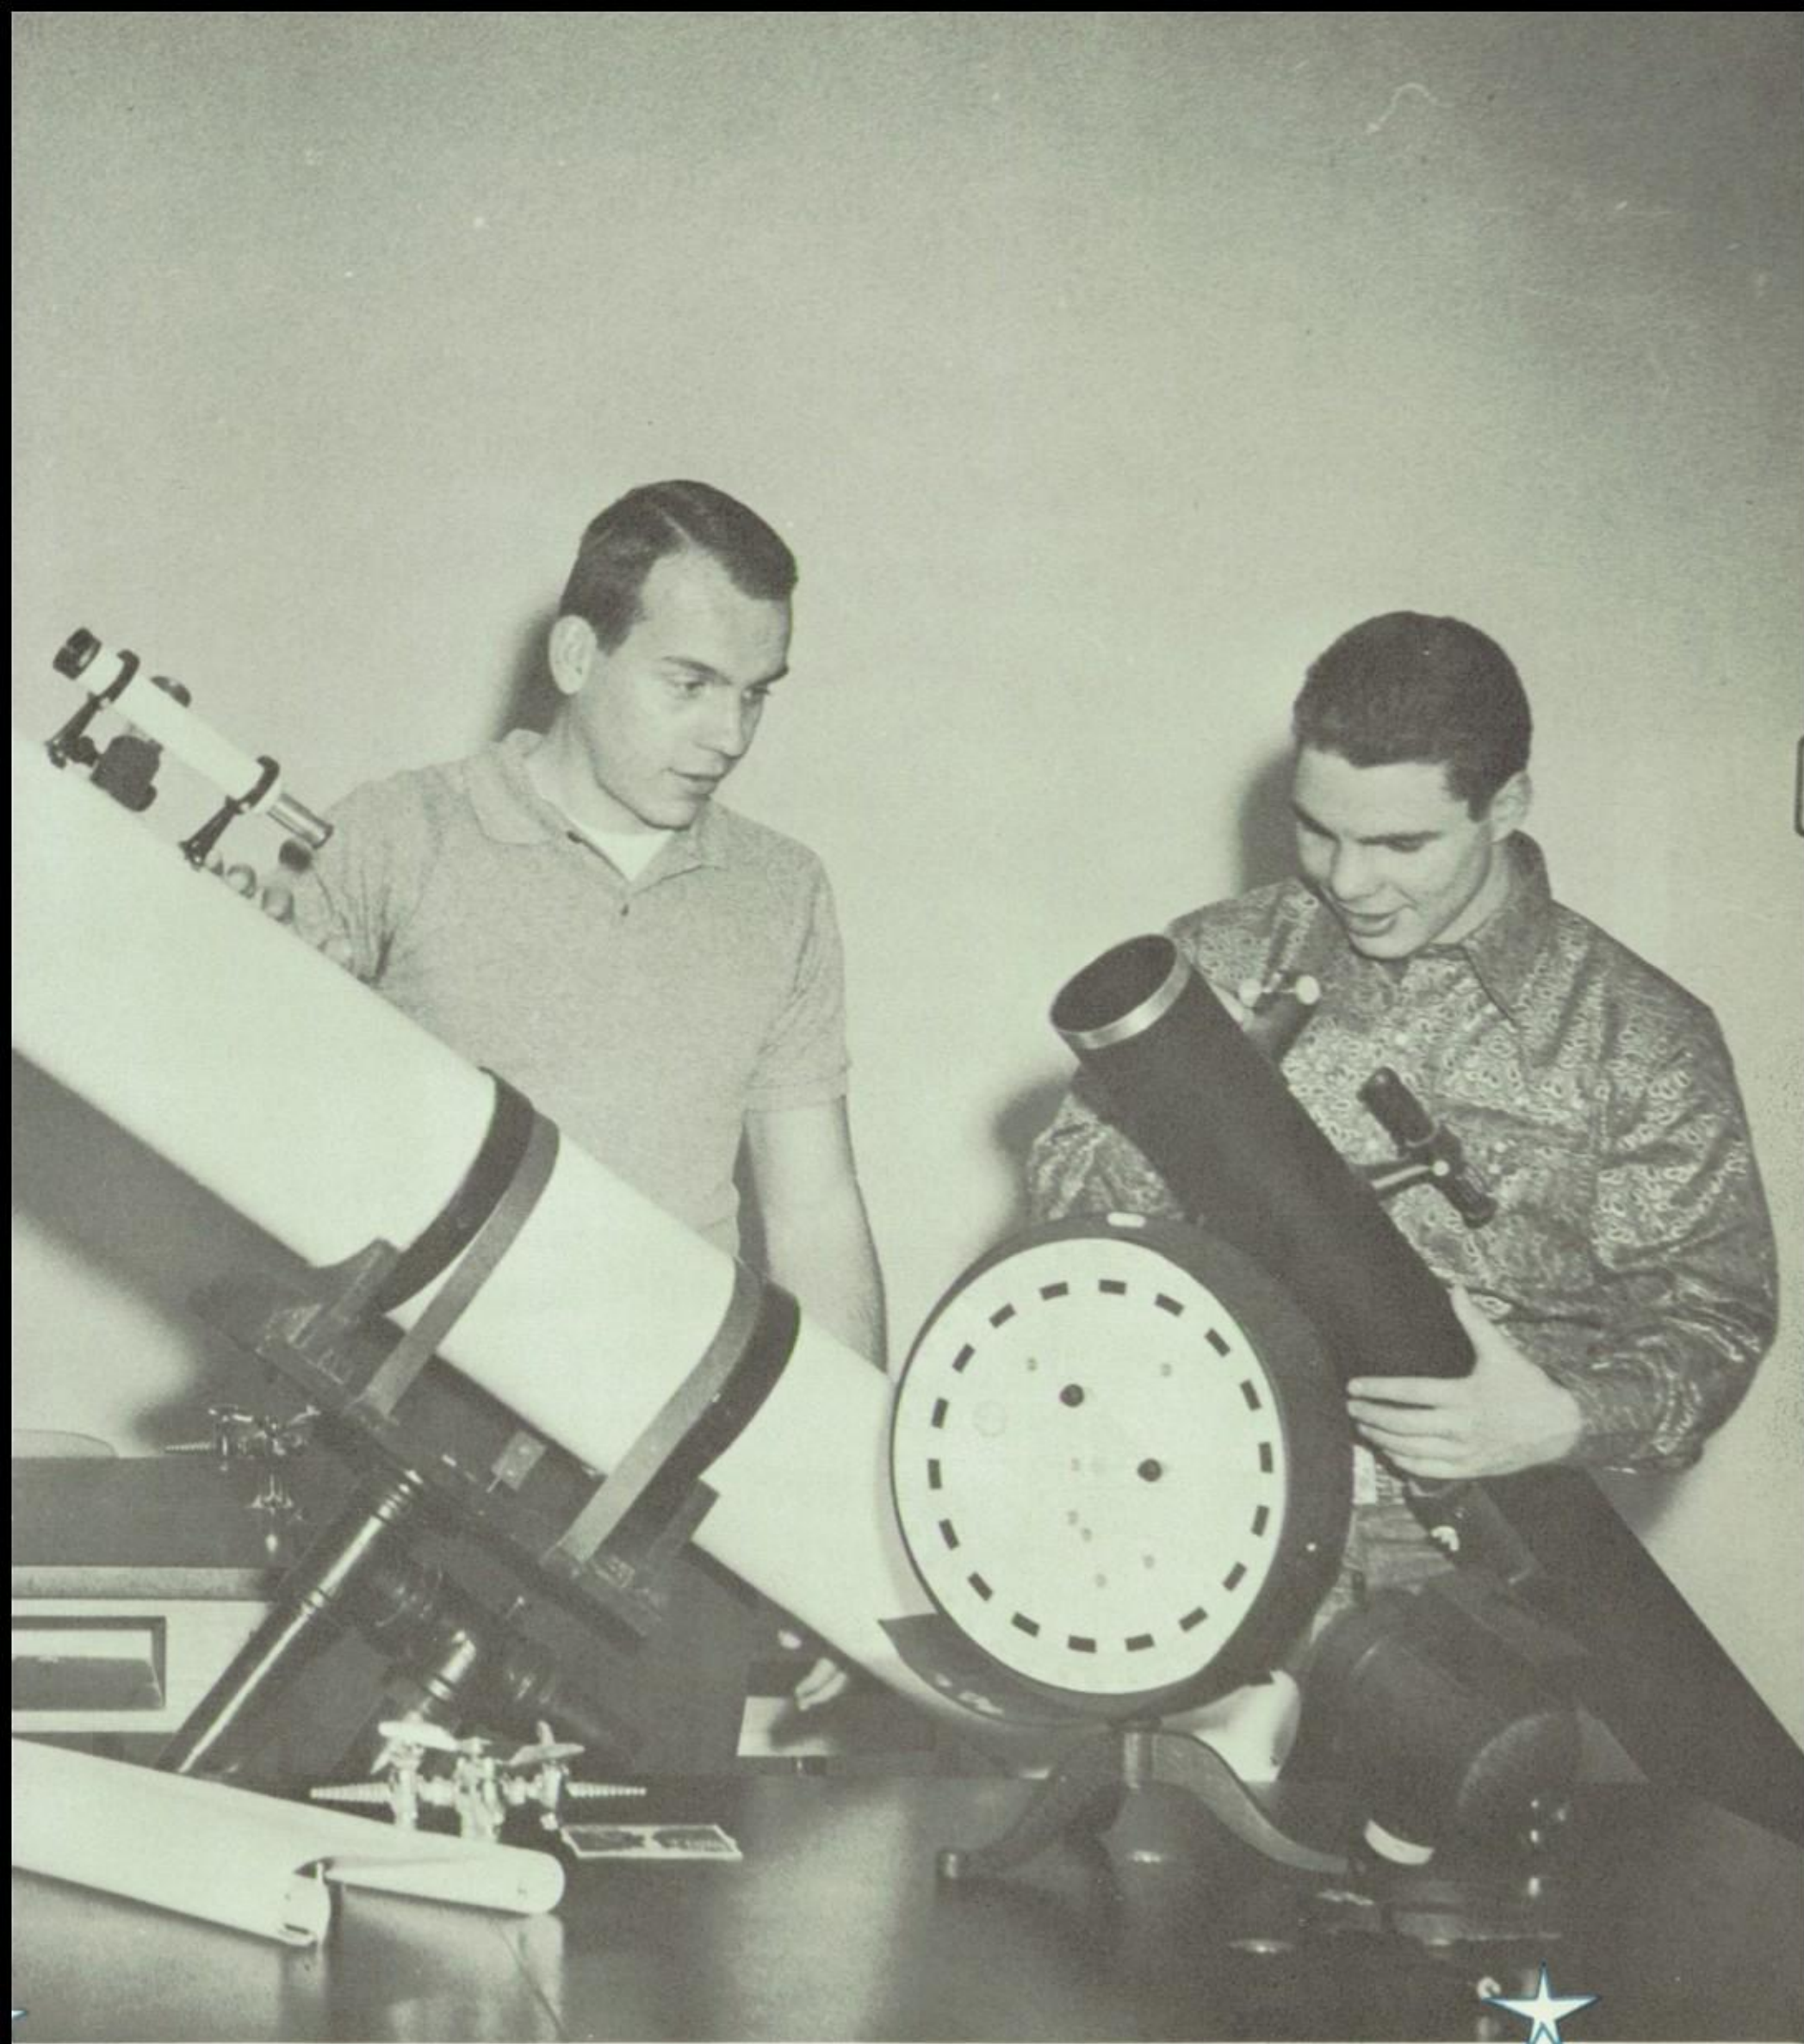

We'll probe the skies
with our own 'scopes;
later we'll take that journey to the moon!

SWEEPSTAKES! Greg Shalamunec examines his model of a wind tunnel which took top award at State Fair.

Our Atomic-Age Scientists

New ideas, a fresh approach to old problems come from youthful scientists. For that reason, America has taken an especially active interest in the development of boys and girls who show talent along scientific lines. Today's zestful youngsters will be tomorrow's space men, engineers, planners, and inventors who will draw all of us ever nearer to the stars.

Central's Greg Shalamunec is our 1960 nominee. He spent two years to develop a wind tunnel for the study of air foils, completing it in time for the Central Arizona Science Fair in April. There were 280 other entries, but Greg's model won the sweepstakes prize. Now he and his teacher, Mr. Ewart, will take the wind tunnel to Indianapolis in May.

CHEM LAB workers easily become absorbed in experiments. In foreground are Petrollo, Shaffer, Instructor Gurr, Marino; background, Soiles, Ostland, Gran, and King. New approach emphasizes "chemical bond" idea.

Spearheaded by a new book co-authored by Central's A. E. Bereit and chemistry teachers from other states, an experimental course in chemistry was built around a central theme the "chemical bond." Various emphasis was on the atom and its structure and the type of bonds formed during chemical reactions.

Laboratory experiments are each designed as individual research problems. Also, each must be attacked or defended on the basis of the experimental evidence the student finds. How and why of chemistry, rather than the "what" got considerable attention. CBAC Chemistry proved exciting and challenging.

How, Why? Keep Us Hopping

WISHING? Well, well! Mr. Ellis and Southwest History group gather at the Heard Museum courtyard where they inspect an authentic wishing well. Field trips to the Indian ruins and other historical points are a part of the class program. With Instructor Ellis are Dave Schumaker, Janice Halfin, Judy Viele, Marti McClanathan, Barbara Gordon, Helene Weinstein, and John Lewis.

We Learn By Doing...

LIKE THIS! Kathi Gates, winner of many Scholastic Art gold keys, applies oil paints to another creation while Bonnie Cook and Martin Fullmer, also key winners, observe her skill.

Central's Reading Center helps students to gain proficiency in speed of reading, skimming, comprehension, vocabulary growth. Director Hinds tries to help students develop personal insight to reasons for their learning difficulty. Personal attention is given, and grades depend on the degree of self-progress as measured by the pupil's final reading test.

Art appreciation can best be learned by doing. Hundreds of Centralites experiment in the several art forms while studying techniques used by the famous and proficient. Interior decorating, fashion design, ceramics, oil and water color media are used. Central's students did well in competition with other Valley students in the Scholastic Arts contests.

BETTER READING ability can be learned by use of new methods such as the group here is using—projection of words on a screen. With the operator, Leslie Fenton, is Mrs. Lillian R. Hinds, the Reading Center supervisor.

CHECKING FOR TB is the Maricopa County Health mobile. Here a group of freshmen are processed for X-Ray. Attendants are PTA officials. Ready to enter the trailer are Sharon Boucelle, Larry Volbirsch, John Ritchie.

Healthy Ones Learn Faster

NEXT! Mrs. Kaplan stamps cards for Class of '63 health seekers. Health is a serious business to Arizonans, for they must share sunshine state with health-seekers from every climate, people who may bring TB germs with them. This year the X-Ray program handled 1919 students and teachers at Central. Also 500 frosh were tested for hearing, 526 for vision. Nurse Josephine Rhodes also reports 474 juniors were given the eye-sight tests.

Day In Court:

GOVERNMENT classes at Central High enjoyed a day in court, October, 1959. At the invitation of Superior Court Justice Lorna Lockwood, over 90 interested Central seniors visited Maricopa County Court House and watched a civil case progress. Guides from the U.S. Marine Corps facilitated the visit. So successful was the excursion it is likely to become an annual event for classes in government and economics. Group shown above is leaving as another group enters to witness the trial proceedings. The case involved a mortgage foreclosure — and much detailed arguing.

NOEL! NOEL! In any language Merry Christmas sounds fine, but it carries an extra zing to students of foreign languages who love to shout the good tidings while establishing their superior knowledge! Here Mike McVay, Mary Parkey, Marilyn Sinibaldi, and Lynn O'Malley work on a Yuletide display in Mrs. Hazel Redewill's classroom.

For Better Understanding

To best understand and be understood is to speak and understand the same language. With this in mind, nine teachers in the Foreign Language Department teach four languages: French, German, Latin, and Spanish. Two years of German are offered and four years each of French, Latin, and Spanish. Student acceptance of the courses is very active and increasing.

In modern languages the order of emphasis is to hear, speak, understand, read and write. Although Central High does not yet have a language laboratory, many of the laboratory devices are used in the individual classrooms. Student enthusiasm at Central verifies the old adage that one leads as many lives as the number of languages he has learned to speak!

MAIS OUI? MAIS NON! Bruce Kannard, president of Le Cercle Francais, is perfectly willing to continue a conversation with Parisian Francis Bouche, but, s'il vous plait, Monsieur, not so VITE!

Business With A Purpose

If you are interested in a career other than housekeeping or hedge trimming, that's your business! And to the Business Education Department many students turn for answers regarding future careers. Here one can acquire skill in typing, shorthand, office training, salesmanship, business mathematics, English.

Our work experience program for business ed students offers opportunity to seniors to gain practical experience on a part-time secretarial, bookkeeping or clerical job. Also, they earn school credit. Banks, utility firms, insurance companies and the YMCA are only a few of the participating groups that are assisting.

WORK EXPERIENCE group takes a lesson in mimeographing from Diane Hester. Pictured are Frances Gulnerick, Pam Shively, Alice Bones, Elizabeth Straight, Terry Rocowsky, Hope Williams, Dick Walker, Arnita

Zinn, Mrs. Boykin, Mary Hill. Also (front) Shirley Dotson, Diane, Sandy Worman, Pat Tompkins, Vicky Pearson, Paula Schlaht, Audry Thompson, and Judy Heltzel. The students report to work after 12 o'clock noon.

Here We Get Home Cooking

TEMPTING TURKEY is next on the menu! While Cafeteria Manager Von Blomberg carves, capable assistants, Vern Matherly, Evelyn Mook, and Elva Prescott are waiting the sampling thrill.

CRANK 'ER UP! When Henry Ford's Tin Lizzy first appeared, every young sport with a pair of racing pacers would snicker, "Git a horse!" whenever they were able to trot past a broken-down flivver. But Henry had the last word; Tin Lizzie outdid the best of horses and led the world to the Automobile Age. Even today many of the original Fords are going strong. Also they have increased in price from the original $800 to upwards of $3,000! Checking this well-preserved Model T, lent to the Auto Shop are (back) Magnusson,, Schumacher, Eastlake, Noble, McMillan, Woodell, Cox, Godfrey, Keeney, King, Silver. At the crank is Herdrick. Teacher is Mr. Garcia, Kodimer is at the wheel, and Parks is just behind him. P.S. They finally got the Tin Lizzy to running!

First Come Fundamentals

Modern industry is crying for expert helpers, but there is no time for the old-fashioned methods for training workers by apprenticeship. By the time one has spent seven years to learn a trade, so many new trades will have appeared his job could be obsolete. Instead, high schools and trade schools are concentrating on teaching fundamentals, leaving it up to industry to bring the young workers up to date in their special fields of interest.

Central High offers fundamental training in electronics, mechanical drawing, radio, general shop, and auto shop. Students who want more specialization, such as in woodwork, metal shop, auto body and painting may enter the PUHS industrial arts school where millions of dollars in equipment await their study. Central's program is adequate for those who want to check their aptitude in mechanical fields or in one of the related vocational areas.

SAFETY MERCHANTS are these Driver Education teachers: Philip Kemp, Al Hoeffel, Burl Von Allman, William Thompson.

Courtesy-That's Keyword!

Arizona's wide open spaces are inviting to tourists and natives alike. So are the highways that span the state . . . inviting to speed; but one result of highway travel has been disastrous. Arizona has the worst per capita record of deaths by automobile in America.

In Central High's three years, classes in driver education have been offered in an attempt to curb the great toll of traffic fatalities. The courses stress attitude as one of the largest factors in determining the driver's qualifications. Faulty personality traits are big factors in 80 per cent of all traffic accidents.

Other good-driver characteristics stressed are skill, knowledge of the laws, and consideration of the other fellow. A driver ed movie emphasized this plea as voiced by an automobile: "Give a car a man who can drive!"

STOP . . . S-T-O-P! Momentum of a speeding car can mean accidents, Driver Education Classes are taught in this demonstration. Mr. Hoeffel explains brake-checking device to Johnson, Sankey, Brown, Smith, and King.

They Were Fantabulous!

PRESIDENT of the Class of '60 was dynamic Mike Weiss. Other officers were Sue Murphy, secretary; Ann Ramenofsky, vice president; Doris Bailey, treasurer. (Bob Wilcox photos)

That "Fantabulous" Class of '60 made a record, all right! They sponsored a Frosh Mixer, Shipwreck Hop, a South Pacific Swing, and a sports dance, while promoting a charity drive which netted $150 and a share of the prize, a fog horn; building a snow man, selling sno-cones, and producing a Talent Parade.

And don't forget their donation of a juke box in the Cafeteria, to say nothing of their Code of Ethics regarding Graduation Week. Other Class of '60 firsts: Senior Favorites and a Senior Class Cheer. Senior Day Picnic, class banquet, and the Farewell Assembly were other exciting high lights in an active year.

Schramm, Martin, Hix, Wynne, Kimball, and others. RIGHT: Gotta rest after that last swing! Martha McClanathan sighs for benefit of Tuveson, Mendotte, Weiss, Spector, Lando, Areghini at Class of '60 hoedown.

Seniors...Wanted Action!

Senior Council members served this year, and how! There was no dodging of meetings or hanging back because prospects of a "dull meeting" dampened desires to participate. On the contrary, so much was happening members had no intention of missing a session. Gotta get their say-so in, you see! Apart from the giddy fun they brought to life, the Class of '60 members were exceptional students, well-behaved, bright, and aggressive. We'll miss them!

The Senior Mosts caused a flurry of excitement among the class members. Who was the most in a class that had so many "mosts"? Most schools are lucky to have one or two valedictorians. Central's Class of '60 had four students so crowding each other at the peak scholastically that four had to be named for the honor! There were so many good looking, outstanding, athletic, popular, humorous, successful, it was a chore to select. See Page 61!

WELL READ and, well, ready! Literary Senior Council members are (seated, front) Brown, Burach, McClanathan, Nelson, Lando, Aftergut. CENTER: Howard, Zazlow, Keilly, Bartlett, Tuveson, Kirkham. TOP: Absorbed in their reading are Wolf, Anderson, Heflin, Faris, Berkenkamp, Brenneisen, Hoskins, Sullivan, Dickerson, Kelley.

The Most!

VOTED by classmates as the "most" in '60 are these Fabulous seniors. UPPER LEFT: Most athletic, Dave Areghini and Adrienne (wow, what muscle!) Cotterman; most outstanding (right) Ann Ramenofsky and Dave Burns; most likely to succeed (center), Mike Weiss and Diane Newmark; most popular, Bob Smelick and Mary Wolf. LEFT CENTER: Tied as most embarrassable girl were Judy Hauskins and Kari Nustad, and blushingest boy, Dave (aw, shucks) Levitas (lower center). Hey, what d'ye mean, we're most humorous? Jack Eaton and Patsy Kelly, right, are ready to argue the point! Then, the best looking couple . . . who else but Tom Hubbard and Doris Bailey!

JUNIOR PROMENADERS enjoy the Mountain Shadows atmosphere, the starlit spring night, and the divine music at the annual Junior-Senior Prom. Couples dancing include Cindy Eisenbeiss, Ned Sawyer; Bill Gold, Linda Arnote; Rogue Guiery, Bob Gilliam. BACK: Nancy Davenport, Tom Elder; Anne Kovacovich and Gus Blanchard.

'61 Hosts With The Mosts!

One's memories of high school are wrapped up in packages of pleasure: The time you got all 1's; or when you won the class speech contest; or when Dad got you that shiny red '56 convertible to remove the agony of waiting for the bus that often got you to school late . . .

Unforgettable, too, will be the Junior-Senior Prom—you had worked since freshman days to pay for it. Your Class of '61 was the Host with the Most! The most pep, most friends, most beautiful gals and, naturally, most handsome guys . . . at the most dreamy formal ever!

Class of '61 Won Praise

LEADERS of the Junior Class included President Bill Gold, Vice President Ned Sawyer, Secretary Sharon Messmore, and Barbie Kulik, class treasurer.

Impressive is the word for the Class of '61. From the still-mischievous sophomores of 1959 they emerged as dignified successors next year to the senior status as school leaders—models for all who watched in awe as they strolled about their new CHS domain.

Prime project, of course, is their Junior-Senior Prom, an event they had been working to pay for since 1958. Mountain Shadows was the scene of their "Fantasia," and success was the outcome. Data Guide, car wash, and candy sales paid all costs of the deluxe entertainment.

JUNIOR CLASS COUNCIL—TOP ROW: Vanderhoff, Sawyer, Abromovitz, Lazzari, Ellis, Kovacovich, Guirey, Fong. MIDDLE: Felix, Miss Hoezle, Parsons, Putman, Blanchard,

Class of '62 Grows Up

Great was the year for the Class of '62. Not only had they successfully bridged the gap from first to second year status; they had also accomplished the move with dignity and a sense of growing up. Freshmen can be so childish at times, the sophomores could agree. They could take a lesson from adults like us sophs! But let's give them time—say, a year!

Money makers were counted in large numbers in the class membership. Two after-game dances proved to be lucrative as well as sporting fun. One, the Mystery J-D Dance, caught the imagination of Bobcats. Candy sales and miscellaneous car wash adventures swelled the class treasury. Class Sponsors Kennedy and Bereit gave valuable guidance to the group.

SOPHOMORE COUNCIL—Seated: Kong, Mrs. Kennedy, Chambers, Griffith, Arnote, Garner. CENTER: Neff, Rice, Shaw, B. Johnson, Heflin, Driskall, Branaman, Hazelett, Dunn, Edson, Christensen, Brinkoetter. TOP: Walker, Ken Johnson, Bernard, McAdam, Ash, Walker, and Martin. Attendance remained high at all Council gatherings.

'63*

ON THEIR WAY! Freshman class officers take things in stride as they contemplate three more years at Central High. Here are Cheri Hart, secretary; Peggy Gelt, treasurer; Chuck Sankey, president, and Brenda Gold, vice president, heading for classes.

Alert to practical problems are our freshmen. The Class of '63 early decided that raising money was a sure step toward success and presto! Two car washes, a bake sale, and a peppy sports dance materialized. Also, the treasury swelled to a satisfactory degree.

Showing the way toward good sportsmanship and game attendance, the Class of '63 also won the Boys' Alliance Basketball Attendance Trophy. They intend to hang onto it for three more seasons, too, and make it a permanent possession. Their pep will grow in 1961!

WELL, THANKS! Chuck Sankey, freshman class president, gratefully accepts Boys' Alliance Trophy for best basketball games attendance record from Alliance President Phil Blende. Right: Gary Taylor and Danny Walrath demonstrate how the Class of '63 rolled in $90 for a big day's work. An earlier car wash netted the class $70.

Touchdown! We can shout to the stars when our team gets that victory spark.

YEA, TEAM! Carol Smith almost goes into orbit at climax of yell.

You Heard Us Scream!

Student body support at the games reached new heights under guidance of a dozen or so spirited, attractive Bobkittens who danced, cavorted, and cajoled in their capacity as cheerleaders or Pom Pon girls. Bobcat fans made the sky ring!

All Smiles

ANY WAY YOU LOOK at them, these girls are full of pep and smiles! Posing prettily are Mary Wolf, Nancy Samuelson, Barbara Kelly, Cynthia Lathrop, Rita Gear, Doris Bailey, Deanna Austin, and Elaine Hoffman. Throughout the year, these girls added immensely to the school's athletic events and various assemblies. Miss Colleen Cook directed the Pom Pon pepsters in their smart routines.

Yea...
Team!!

They Cheered Us Along...

Throughout the year, in every sport, six lively, lovely girls kept the spectators in a zippy mood and the air full of ear-splitting yells of encouragement for the team. Whenever the team lagged behind, Central's cheer leaders would cajole songs or cheers from the crowd... sounds loud and clear enough to perk up the boys struggling for a victory on the field

Snappy routines, original treatment of otherwise standard yells, and excellent timing gave Central High's booster section top rating. Back of the game-time appearances of the cheer squad were long hours of rehearsals, practices, study. Techniques of other schools, especially the colleges, were appraised, patterned, after, as Miss Colleen Cook directed the squad.

CLIMAX of yell finds girls in geometric sky-pattern.

Pep Party RAH, RAH, CENTRAL! Sherry Farquer, Marti McClanathan, and Kit Tuveson show some of the Bobcat spirit. "Bring on the eats, we're hongry!" Some more spirit was shown at the football banquet. A speaker from the U of A gave the players an inspiring talk on good sportsmanship and fair play, and an orchestra ensemble jived up the end-of-season proceedings with some snappy Dixieland jazz.

GIT ALONG THAR, pardner! Gotta whirl an' stomp at the Sagebrush Swing! Drugstore cowboys by the hundreds re-lived the Old West at the annual Rodeo Dance sponsored by Girls Athletic Association. Maverick would have envied many an outfit sported that night. Top feature of the evening was announcement of the best-dressed cowboy and cowgirl and official installation of the winners of the whisker-growing derby. It was real great, Pardner!

Swing 'Er Round!

MUTUAL admiration of whiskers goes on between Sheriff Brat Maverick (Ron Ballatore) and Wild Burpp (Roger Addlesberger) at Sagebrush Swing. The hairy-faced pair were No. 1 and 2 in the beard-growing contest at Central. Earlier that day they supervised arrest and incarceration of Bobcat dudes who had ignored the Wear Western edict on campus.

Oh, How We Danced!

REACHING for a star . . . at Boys' Alliance formal, is Ann Hondrum. Photographer Dan Reynolds couldn't resist this opportunity to illustrate the 1960 Centralian's theme idea!

We could have danced all night—and almost did! The many fine dances held this year provided fun-filled evenings, good music. Nearly every campus organization was associated with at least one dance during the year. The social year got off to a fine start with the Bobcat Bounce, sponsored by Boys' Alliance and Girls' League, and honored the freshman class.

EVENING in Paradise for several hundred Bobcats. This scene of contentment was also a preview of Oriental Socially highlighting the school year were the three fine Central High formals: Boys' Alliance "An Evening in Paradise", Girls' League "Oriental April", and the Junior-Senior Prom "Fantasia". Some of the less dressy, but equally important dances were the GAA Rodeo Dance, the Orchestra Dance, and the Annual Spring Hop, all on campus.

April and Junior-Senior Prom Fantasia scheduled for Central's social set. It was a real Top Fun year!

SITTING PRETTY is Bonnie Anderson, queen of the Boys' Alliance annual formal ball. Her attractive attendants are France Martin, Florence Howard, and Angel Stromberg shown in an exotic South Seas Islands setting.

We Select A Queen

Beauty, romance, and "An Evening in Paradise" highlighted Boys' Alliance annual autumn formal. With all the fanfare of a Miss America Pageant, the Alliance conducted a school-wide poll to select their queen. Several points were to be considered: natural beauty, poise, personal charm, intelligence. Citizenship records and grade averages ruled out giddy types; from 10 campus lovelies three impartial judges selected the winner and attendants. These attractive girls were given a royal welcome at the Alliance formal ball.

Better Be Good!

CHECKING up on l'il boys and girls are cute Santas Kathy Munn, Carolyn Boger, Carolyn, Black, Glenda Davis.

We enjoy a merry, merry Christmas even in the land of perpetual sunshine. Not a little of that enthusiasm, of course, comes from our visions of the two-week holiday approaching! This year we helped the poor, pondered our gift list, worked at part-time jobs! It was all an exciting, rewarding part of the fun.

CHRISTMAS IS THE DAY . . . But let these elves tell you all about it! Penny Reichtold, Donna Pendergraft,

Our Christmas Assembly was excellent, as usual. Little elves, Santa's helpers, and clever decorations gave the right overtone to the drama, the modern dances and the music that thoroughly pleased everybody. The program was a combination effort of the Music, Physical Education, Drama and Speech Departments.

Janice Clapp, Jackie Walter, Linda Bartl, Molly Davis, Bobbie Miner, Carmel Dunn dance to "Mr. Sandman."

Oh What Fun!

Music Does Cheer Us

All Their Work Is Play . . .

At the drop of a downbeat, you could depend on our band's striking up a martial air. Whatever the occasion, if a place could be found to feature our instrumentalists, they'd be there. For instance, we found them highlighting "Frill Night" for the PTA; six assemblies, innumerable sports events. They played at the State Fair, in the Rodeo Parade, at a Midwinter and April 27 Spring Concert.

They also entertained 8th graders soon to enter Central as freshmen. That's promotion!

Outstanding musicians make up Concert Band and the smaller Pep Band. They sight read expertly, march and play with genuine technique. And they thoroughly enjoy all of it. This year seven Bobcats won a place in the All-State Band. They'll enter college ready to excell in music once again!

CHORALIERS AT YULETIDE—TOP ROW: Miss Hergt, Barnwell, Clyde, Locker, Smith, Anstett, Stone, Lazzari, Taylor, Benson, Evans, Dunlap, Eshom, Phalen, Przewosny, Rohwer, Jones, Vurich, Kobel. CENTER: Benston, Bates, Younger, Burgess, Entz, Clark, Larson, Stringer, Sailes, Cave, Erickson, Gardner, Endsley, Diller. 2nd ROW: Bates, Mastin, Campbell, Greer, Corrington, Kerr, Keating, Mesick, Fowler, Hage, Humphrey, Rosebrook, De Benon, Houser, Strock, Fernald. FRONT ROW: Russell, Anderson, Ehrlich, Silvey, Kemmell, Smith, Turner, Cowley, West, Seal, Johnson, Widney, Dunbar, Cleary, Hannaford; also, Pearson, Ray, McKee, and Green.

Who hasn't sighed, "I wish I could sing!" Perhaps Nature's most wonderful gift to a human being is an unusually melodious voice. Not many are so blest; the average voice is . . . just another voice. But all of us can learn to appreciate good music, while lacking the ability to create it. Even "ordinary" voices can be taught to blend in a large choir.

Hundreds of Centralites have learned to blend voices and come up with truly melodious effects. Helped by a large number of gifted voices, our choral groups have brought many hours of pleasure to students and patrons at Central High; they have also entertained at many other places in the Valley of the Sun, efficiently directed by Miss Kathleen Hergt.

You Should Hear Them!

LOST in reverie as they sing "Home on the Range" are Bonnie Cook, Hank Keneally, Joan Ehrlich, John Bradshaw, and Avalyn Rohwer of the Music Department's Madrigal Singers.

Sweet Voices Mingling . . .

STATE FAIR patrons cheered music of Patty Hines, Jennine Kurth, Hope Williams, Sandi Price, Judy Stone, Evelyn Dise, and Bonnie Cook.

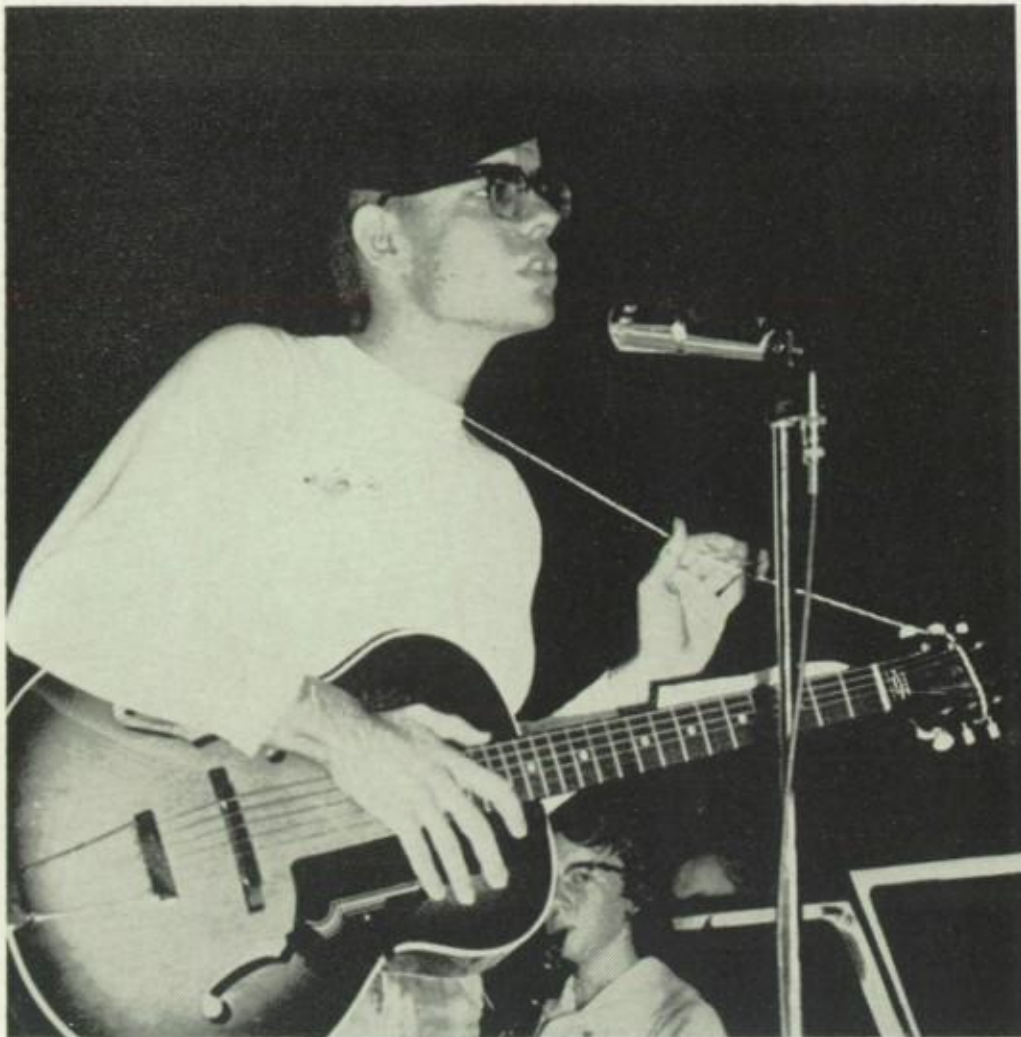

Our happy year was made even more so by the singing of Central's Choristers. Under the inspiring guidance of Miss Kathleen Hergt, the mixed choir spread a wealth of good feeling throughout the state. Assisted by accomplished pianist Ruth Hoesch, the choir performed for Rotary Club, the Dons' Club, often for PTA, and at Easter Sunrise Services.

Appearing at Westward Ho, Safari Hotel, and Valley Ho Resort, these vocalists spread the name of Central High in fine style. The singers shone brightly in the Valley Choral Festival competition and at the University of Arizona Regional Music Festival at Tucson. Their final appearance was scheduled for Graduation Exercises on the campus June 3.

CONCERT CHOIR, TOP ROW: Conner, Koenig, Houser, Eason, Moffatt, Dise, Burnett, Parkey, McArthur, Phillips, Davy, Jansen, Odom, Mason, Ramenofsky, Sullivan, Holland, Burleson, Howard, Curran. CENTER: Barrows, Kurth, Racowsky, Brewer, Williams, Mallin, Brown, Dyer, Koenig, Briskman, Hinz, Rigler, Wakeling, Josifek, Nustad, Pansini, Cook, Heath, Filson, Magoon. FRONT: Stevens, Wickstrom, Barker, Keneally, Reynolds, Hebs, Schatt, Long, Williams, Bradshaw, Kelman, Mayer, Stringham, Kimbell, Fullmer. Group sang at the Yule Program.

LEETLE RED RIDINK Hood gets the business from Beatnik Jerry Telfer in comic act of Orchestra Assembly

Music To Please Everybody

ORCHESTRA gathers for Yule Program. Violinists are Beall, Bentle, Buzard, Elliott, French, Retz, Silver, Solberg, Vaupell, Willette, Young. Viola: Jakes, Morgensen, York. Cello: Brown, Filson, Hoesch, Maisner, Nemeth; Contrabass: Johnston, Miller, Stewart; Flute: Elardo, Poetzi, Johnson; Clarinet: Cornelson and Gimple; Bassoon: Cook; Saxophone: McLeod; Trumpet: Byrd, Chambers, Eberhart, Hume, Michaels; French Horn: Doublebower and Farquer; Trombone: Keneally; Tuba: Levy; Percussion: Littler and Williams; also Deupree and Fratt, the piano accompanists.

Ready On Downbeat!

DANCE BAND ready to entertain at Senior Talent Assembly included (front) Keneally, McLeod, Elardo, Eberhard, Chambers, Cornelson, Sinibaldi, Anderson. BACK: Williams, A. Cornelson, Miller, Littler, and band Director William Bagwell.

Entertaining indeed was the Concert Orchestra's "Pops 100" assembly program. The group efficiently carried us through the development of popular music during the last 100 years, using a combination of songs, parodies, and dances to spark the music by the orchestra. It was a well-planned, well-received hour's entertainment. The orchestra provided background for the annual Christmas Program presented on December 18 in the Gymnasium.

Other appearances for the well-trained aggregation included the February 16 PTA program, featuring a 10-minute "atomic capsule" of music from ancient chants to the Central High alma mater written in 1959. Also, a concert at Meadows School March 3; Mid-winter Concert March 9; Open House March 28; State Music Festival, Tucson, May 6-7. They played for a football dinner at Central High and the Shriners banquet in December.

Irish Eyes

WHEN IRISH EYES are smiling, you can bet that Frances Martin's in on the act! Here Central High's Foreign Exchange Student is showing her American sister, Patti Cohn, how to do a genuine Irish jig. Frances has made her home with her adopted family, Mr. and Mrs. Morris W. Cohn. The comely Irish girl was one of the Boys' Alliance sweethearts and a Parnassus Club and National Honor Society member. She was active also in the Advance Dance group.

Staff Antics

This Staff Stood The Gaff

If you think that it takes a whole school year to prepare the yearbook for publication . . . you are so right! Ten thousand details crowd each other into corners as the work piles up. Gathering statistics on senior records is rough enough but just try to get them in order, then remember where they were last placed! Only the patience of seniors who filled out activity records 10, these many times over, could compare to the frustrations of staff members trying, trying and trying!

But here it is, your 1960 Centralian. It's 30 pages larger than last year's copy and almost twice as detailed. It contains many "mosts"; most pictures, most ads, most color, most student life . . . And the staff had more fun working on its pages than might appear. Biggest headache was the lack of working room. The staff would prepare pictures, layouts, and lists for tedious work then, whammo! Off go the lights in the "workshop", for a drivers' ed movie! But we found a way, yessir!

Our Echoes Won Applause

One big, happy family worked to produce Central High School's second year issues of Echoes. Under the handicap of inadequate quarters, extended session classes, and high costs of production, the Central Echoes staff still managed to do the job well. One thing new: the staff got its own telephone . . . at last! Bobcats gladly supported the Echoes.

WELL READ STAFFERS of the school paper, Central Echoes, keep busy even when the camera is pointed at them! Seated are news scribes Karen Cress, Barbara Isenberg, Judy Loken, Paul Schatt, Linda Redfern, Ely Pentland, Sharon Farquer. STANDING are Claudia John-

Echoes works on a pay-as-you-go plan. No issue is definitely set until the ads are lined up and the price, in excess of $350, is "in the bag". That way, the bugaboo of deficits comes not to haunt the administration and the paper's management. Well received issues came out in October, November, at Christmas time, on April Fool's Day, and at graduation time.

son, Sherie Lande, Rogue Guirey, Charleen Bartlett, Sue Murphy, Diane Smith, Tim Tuveson, Kay Dickerson, Dan Reynolds, Chris Von Blum, Anne Kovacovics, Gail Ringley, and Linda Wray. Group also helped with layouts, advertising, photography, and doing necessary errands.

RING IT THIS WAY! Pep Clubbers get a practical demonstration on the handling of a cowbell at Bobcat grid games. Seated are Askins, M. Davis, President Super, G. Davis, secretary, Pehon, Popkin, Worman, Hall.

CENTER: Miss Hepburn, co-sponsor; Dumono, Popozo, Bingley, Abrams, Loveall, Sponsor Orman, Gatlin, Kong. TOP: Williams, O'Hair, Grouskay, Hall, Coker, Hallam, Gage, Gold. Club's main function was making noise.

Yep, They're Hep With Pep!

What would the Bobcat games be without a dedicated bunch of fans roaring out encouragement to cheerleaders and team? Pep Club, finding its place in the center of Central High rooting sections, provides the impetus that can bring victory out of possible defeat.

They may not know the particulars of electronics, but Pep Clubbers send chemical changes by radiant enthusiasm to spark Central crowds to join in the fun. They recharged club batteries, and aided the Foreign Exchange drive with numerous sales and pep campaigns.

Fellowship And Friendship

Fellowship is the real key to world understanding. Fears and distrust arise out of ignorance; where philosophies are exchanged, ideas explained, friendship follows. The Fellowship Club, organized primarily in the interests of tolerance, likes to investigate and discuss various religious concepts and their backgrounds. One of the most popular clubs at Central High, membership is open to all. High interest in the club's ideals speaks well for the fair-mindedness of Central students.

Many prominent speakers have visited the group this year to dwell on the subjects interesting to members. Included in the list of distinguished visitors were Dr. Beck of Grand Canyon College; Mrs. Whitney, who heads the Department of Psychology at Phoenix College; and Mrs. Nancy Phillips of the Ba'hai faith. Fellowship officers are Bob Keilly, president; Marilyn Mitchell, vice president; Benita Aftergut and Gail Karon, secretaries; and Beth Fillmore, Fellowship Club treasurer.

Masque & Gavel Raises $ $

To be or not to be—that was what bothered Hamlet, but not the Masque & Gavel Society! Very much alive and growing is this active group with 30 charter members, dedicated to speech and drama. Their unusual talent became evident when M & G financed the Christmas program. Members sponsored a Little Theater play with big financial returns.

Numerous skits in assemblies kept the Masque & Gavel group in the public eye. Honor to Central came also via fine showings in speech contests. Bleary-eyed orators arrived by 5:30 one Saturday morning at Central to head for Tucson; they returned with victorious smiles and certificates of honor. Dave Burns again won the city-wide Oratorical Contest.

MOTTOS guide Masque & Gavel officers in their plans for better performances. Planners here are Dave Levitas, vice president; Helen Prince, secretary; Bruce Spector, president; John Kimbell, sgt.-at-arms, and Lynn Wright, club treasurer.

Fun In Thrills And Spills

Great sport for good sports! And what could seem more exciting than ice skating in a country where the only snow we see is on television or in sno-cones! Every Thursday beautiful gals and gallant gents from Central braved the hard ice to enjoy thrills, chills, and spills. Every Bobcat is urged to join. Now why not?

BOWLING CLUB— Top Row: Young, Krueger, Seese, MacCracken, Willette, Clay, Stafford, Johnson, Schnee, Brookshire, Earl. Center: Drabek, Miss Lobit, Morey, Holding less hazards but offering as many thrills as skating is the sport of bowling. Organizing an all-girl Bowling Club, Central girls vied for strikes, spares, and club honors while learning the fine points of an exhilarating game. Bowling will remain as a lifetime hobby with many of these girls. Lasting friendships go along with the hobby, of course!

MacCracken, Bingley, Foster, Sonner, Wade, Shriber. Seated: Thiss, Rossi, Widney, Drullinger, Smith, Smith, Devaughn. The girls bowled once each week.

They Like Problems

NOW WHAT to do! Meng watches carefully as Orman makes his move. Will it be checkmate? Fellow Chess Clubbers put on a good show of suspense for the camera this time, but it isn't always just acting! Others seated are Maples, Schatt, Lemmer, Shobe, Tanner. Standing are McVay, Sponsor Juettner, Kruse, Wallace, Mr. Gurr, Warner, Albeson, Taylor.

An answer to critics who say teenagers are lazy, unimaginative, illiterate watchers of TV and spinners of rock, roll records might well be the leisure time clubs many Bobcats have formed. Among these is the Chess Club—for people who think. Concentration, strategy, planning ahead are all requisites of the good chess player. They're also important ingredients of success in the work-a-day world!

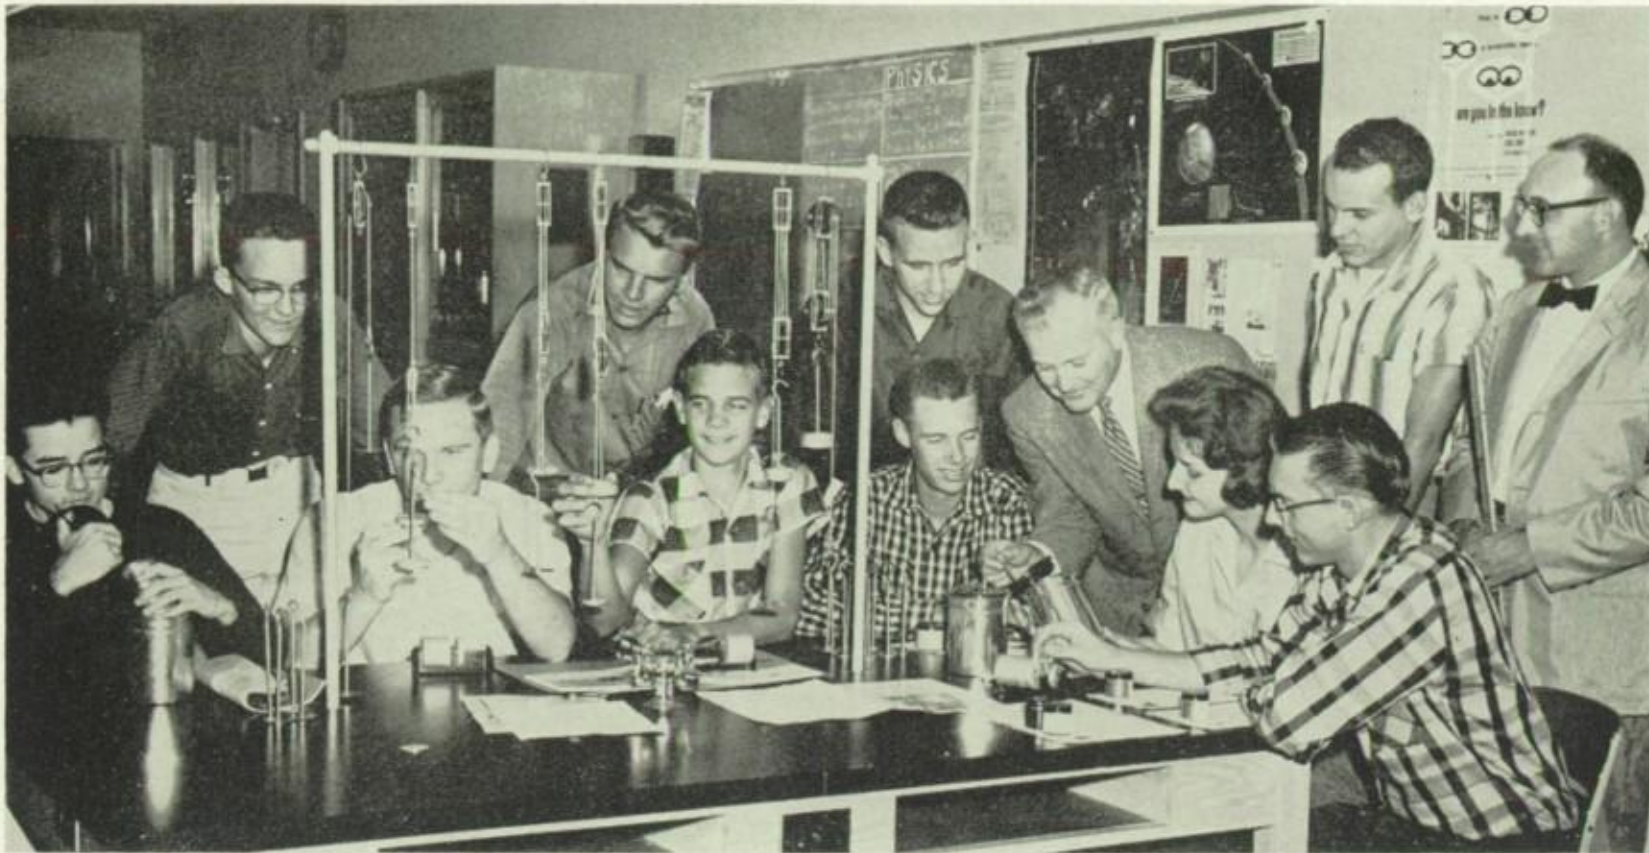

An outgrowth of the Radio Hams' organization is the Electronics Club. Not that radio has taken a back seat; it has been retained with all the newest features. But electronics is the chief fascination in the world of science. Television, radio, and the atom are symbols of today's wonders and tomorrow's achievements. Tomorrow's astronauts will require technical knowledge as basic as these boys are seeking.

KNZJCT; McGinty, D. Byrd, Porter, and Wilson. FRONT ROW (seated): Geiger, K7EBP; Vyne, K7HOH; Tuchler, Maples, Brown, Brady, Jefferies, McVay, and Bond.

BALANCES and counterbalances occupy attention of Science Club members . . . for purposes of photography. Actually, their interests abound in many fields of science.

They Reach For The Stars

Ah, science, it's wonderful! Without the magic of chemistry there would be no subtle perfumes with which beautiful women lure unsuspecting men toward the altar; there would be no high powered cars or motor boats without the aid of scientists; no hi-fi, television, no hydrogen bombs to blast the enemy . . . Not that we'd want any such horrible thing to happen. It merely pays to be strong!

GENETICS CLUB—(seated) Clark, Sec. Lynch, Gaisford, Pres. Maples, Naeb, Tres. Mehagian, Shields. CENTER: Errickson, Sponsor Johnson, Robs, Cox, V.P. Falls, Lislou,

Youth has long had a stake in science. Young men and women have pioneered where older people grew discouraged. And it is youth that will reach the stars . . . not next year, perhaps, or even 10 years, but inevitably. Astronauts can get their basic training in any high school science lab; yesterday's truths may be used to build up for tomorrow's wonderful accomplishments. More power to such!

Dillard, Sponsor Humphry. TOP: Urman, Weiss, Warner, Tuveson, Miller, Guckler, Rohwer. Members went far afield seeking specimens to further their projects.

Thinking Leads To Goals

Individual freedom of expression in writing is an aim of Blotters Club. Poetry, short stories, articles on any subject under the sun are in the making as members work to get the club on its feet this first year. As a group members are planning to create a whole novel that typifies today's modern teenager.

Well known professional writers were on the agenda as speakers at a number of the meetings. Sponsor is Mrs. Hackett and president, Susanne Peden. And, as club members long since have agreed, "The best way to learn to write anything well is . . . to write!"

Many of us have harbored ideas of greatness . . . maybe even delusions of grandeur.

Well, who wouldn't like to become an Einstein? Who wouldn't feel important if the world paid homage for a great invention or revolutionary formula that would help mankind? That's reaching for the stars in a big way, all right.

That's the philosophy of Math Club members. Mainly they want to develop and sustain an interest in mathematics by providing unusual experiences for each of the members.

Constructing mathematical devices are part of the year's projects. Field trips and guest speakers were included. Leader of Math Club was Greg Shalamunec, whose wind tunnel took sweepstakes prize at the Central Arizona Science Fair in April in keen competition.

Gals With A Future

Feeling that teachers are not adequately appreciated, Future Teachers of America are readying plans for a "Teacher Appreciation Day" next fall. There is ample reason to believe the project will shine with success. Their first group activity was a party for the children at the Jane Wayland Home. Then in January they staged a big membership drive. A state convention and banquet highlighted their March program to be followed by an Easter party at the Jane Wayland Home.

Future Homemakers of America are certain of a job. Everybody likes to eat; everybody likes a good home! The girls learn early that home making can be a top flight career in itself. Finance, home decorating, cooking, sewing, even flower-arranging were topics of the club meetings. Guest speakers also appeared.

APPLES FOR the teacher! Overcome by all the apple-polishing is FTA's teacher of the day, Bingley, approached by Reese. Others are Lodge, Crayton, Shepherd, historian; Vurich, president; McLeod, treasurer; Williams, Volbrath, Sponsor Boykin, Hartwich, vice president; Strock, and Stewart. But they're really serious about FTA!

TRI-PURITEES Tri-Hi-Y talk things over. SEATED are Haas, Smith, Mallin, Sponsor Boyle, Oseran, treasurer; Holmes, sgt.-at-arms; Nustand, Howard, secretary; Fuller,

Learning To Be Good & Y's

It's wise to be one of the Y's! Wholesome activities planned by and for YMCA groups fill a need for young people in Phoenix. At Central two organizations that have enjoyed an active year's program are Tri-Puritees and Tri-Cen Teens. While benefiting from exchange of ideas and valuable projects, the girls have formed many lasting friendships.

Service is a prime purpose of the Y groups: service to the school and to the community. Learning to live together, to share, and co-operate with the YMCA program have been rewarding. Projects this year included Heart Fund work; distributing Toys for Tots; collecting clothing for "Dress a Living Doll"; and money-raising for Good Shepherd Home.

TRI-CEN-TEENS—(Front Row): Lighter, sergeant-at-arms; Robinette, secretary; Eisenbeiss, V.P.; North, president; Mrs. Williams, adviser; Young, treasurer; Loken, chaplain; Karansky, historian. Center: Stone, Veece, Maban, Caco, Keast, Johnsen, Seabury, Morell, Geoffroy, Kobel, Ash. Top: Trent, O'Mally, Felix, West, Wahl, Crismon, Randall, Hershfield, Printer, and Fernald. Good deeds and multiple plans for future projects made teen-time speed.

Ja Wohl!

German, Latin Clubs Active

ACH DÜ LIEBER! Who has more fun than Die Wildkatzen? A study of German is the basic foundation of the club, organized in 1958 by Sponsor William Kendall. Traditions of Der Vaterland are colorful enough to keep any interested group excited for an unlimited time. Speakers, travel-talk pictures, and skits helped German Club members enjoy meetings.

NAY! TAKE IT away! Liston takes a listless attitude toward the Latin textbook offered by Hage. Others in front row are Anderson, Weinstein, Bitner, Jamros. CENTER:

Roman cones, sold by "Caesar's soldiers," helped raise American money for Legio Decima's favorite project, a Christmas fund for the needy. Other Latin Club activities were drawing up a new constitution, preparing rigorous initiation rites for novice members, and skits. Officers included President Lazzari, Vice Pres. Liston, Fong, Aftergut, and Munn.

Peden, Younger, Aftergut, Gilbert, Gimple, Crayton. TOP: Fong, Phillips, Johnston, Schatt, Gainsford, Tuveson, Lazzari, Barnet, Gregory, and Sponsor Robbins.

WHAM! Kaufman is about to sock the Pinata Santa loaded with goodies for expectant Spanish Club members. In front are Sponsor Hensing, Martin, Levy, Martinez. BACK: Caldwell, Shepherd, Childs, Hunter, Rus-selle are ready for "grabs".

Having Fun While We Learn

With Future Business Leaders of America preparing to enter the various fields for which they are now training, American business firms can sigh with relief. There's comfort in the knowledge that efficient help is on the way! Aside from charity projects such as Christmas help-the-needy, the FBLA group toured First National Bank, IBM Service Department, and heard talks by experts in business. Bake sales brought in money for many club projects.

FBLA members (seated) are Moffatt, Larson, Duprest, Markson, Schlaht, Egan. STANDING: Young, Mumma,

Learning to speak Spanish is a good way to learn about Spanish-speaking peoples. It is especially important for Arizonans to achieve this goal since we are direct neighbors to Mexico; in fact, much of the culture in Phoenix has strong Spanish origins. La Tertulia Club takes pleasure in the study of Spanish customs such as the dances, drama, and literature. Many picture tours and skits added much zest and color to the past year's club meetings.

Dunlap, Mr. Caceletto, Montandon, Eshom, Evans, Meadows, Haas, Mitchell, Levendusky, Cane, Misner, Copsey.

Linda Artists At Work

HALP! This is First Aid? Victim of well-meaning Nurse Jan Rodgers is Don Spencer. Unsympathetic observers of Junior Red Cross Club are (seated) Brooks, Adams, Diller, Hoag, Shields. STANDING: Club Adviser Von Allman, Joyce Greenway, and Levy, McMillen.

Scene, Room 310; time, 4 to 5 p.m. the first and third Wednesday of each month: crime, well, there isn't any! Those bandages and splints are for practice, not for cover-up! Aim of Junior Red Cross is to promote at Central High the aims and workings of Red Cross. The group made visits to hospitals, studied first aid, helped needy families, hosted at the USO dances, and conducted bake sales.

Using their skill, Brush Pushers fixed up old toys for children at County Hospital and made posters for Operation Old Glory. Also they visited the Art Center and Heard Museum, made Easter baskets for shut-in children, and enjoyed numerous club parties at which members compared paintings and other art projects, worked on entries for Scholastic Art Awards contest. Also they prepared and sold cup cakes.

MODERN ART? Highly amused at use of ram's skull as objet d'art are Brush Pushers (seated) Boyd, McCann, Elardo, Gregory, Soto. STANDING: Miss McCann, sponsor; O'Toole, Hankins, Deden, Corrington, Matz, Kimball.

KEY CLUB members enjoyed an active year with full membership. FRONT: Mr. Howard, Kiwanis representative; Heller, Meng, Pratt, Long, Tuveson, Blende, Brown, and Kiwanian Case. CENTER: Sponsor Feiler, Eaton, Levi-

Leadership's The Key Word

Motivated by the idea of building leaders needed in today's world, Key Club International's Central High chapter began the year with high hopes. Not only were qualities of leadership studied and followed but Key Clubbers also contributed to worthy causes. Included in service projects were showing of two movies which raised $300 for the Foreign Exchange fund and $200 donated to TAP.

In addition to project activities, the group heard a number of excellent speakers who dwelt on such subjects as vocations and planning one's life. Especially interesting was the visit of the commanding officer of the Arizona State University ROTC program. Members participated also in the all-city Key Convention. President was Bob Keilly; Charlie Berkenkamp, vice-president; Chuck Faris, treasurer.

WHO'S WHO? Not really the Owl's Club are these members of a newly-formed group. Purpose of the organization was to seek further knowledge through study of world leaders. Advised by Mrs. Grevenberg, charter members included Carol Mancell, Angel Stromberg, Pam Stringer, Nancy Samuelson; also Patty Bergman, Elaine Hoffman, Lynne Mangano, Tom Barnett, Jim Roberts, Clarke Espy and John Mangum.

Theirs La Joie De Vivre!

Joie de vivre! Le Cercle knows the substance of that expression, if not the fulfillment. One of the school's most active organizations, the French Club puts all the verve of La Belle France into things American, with just enough French sauce added to keep everything at top key as well as in sparkling good taste.

Activities of Le Cercle this year included the Grande Fete de Noel, Grand Fete d'initiation, and an exciting visit from M. Paul Coze, French consul; Room 314 was really packed!

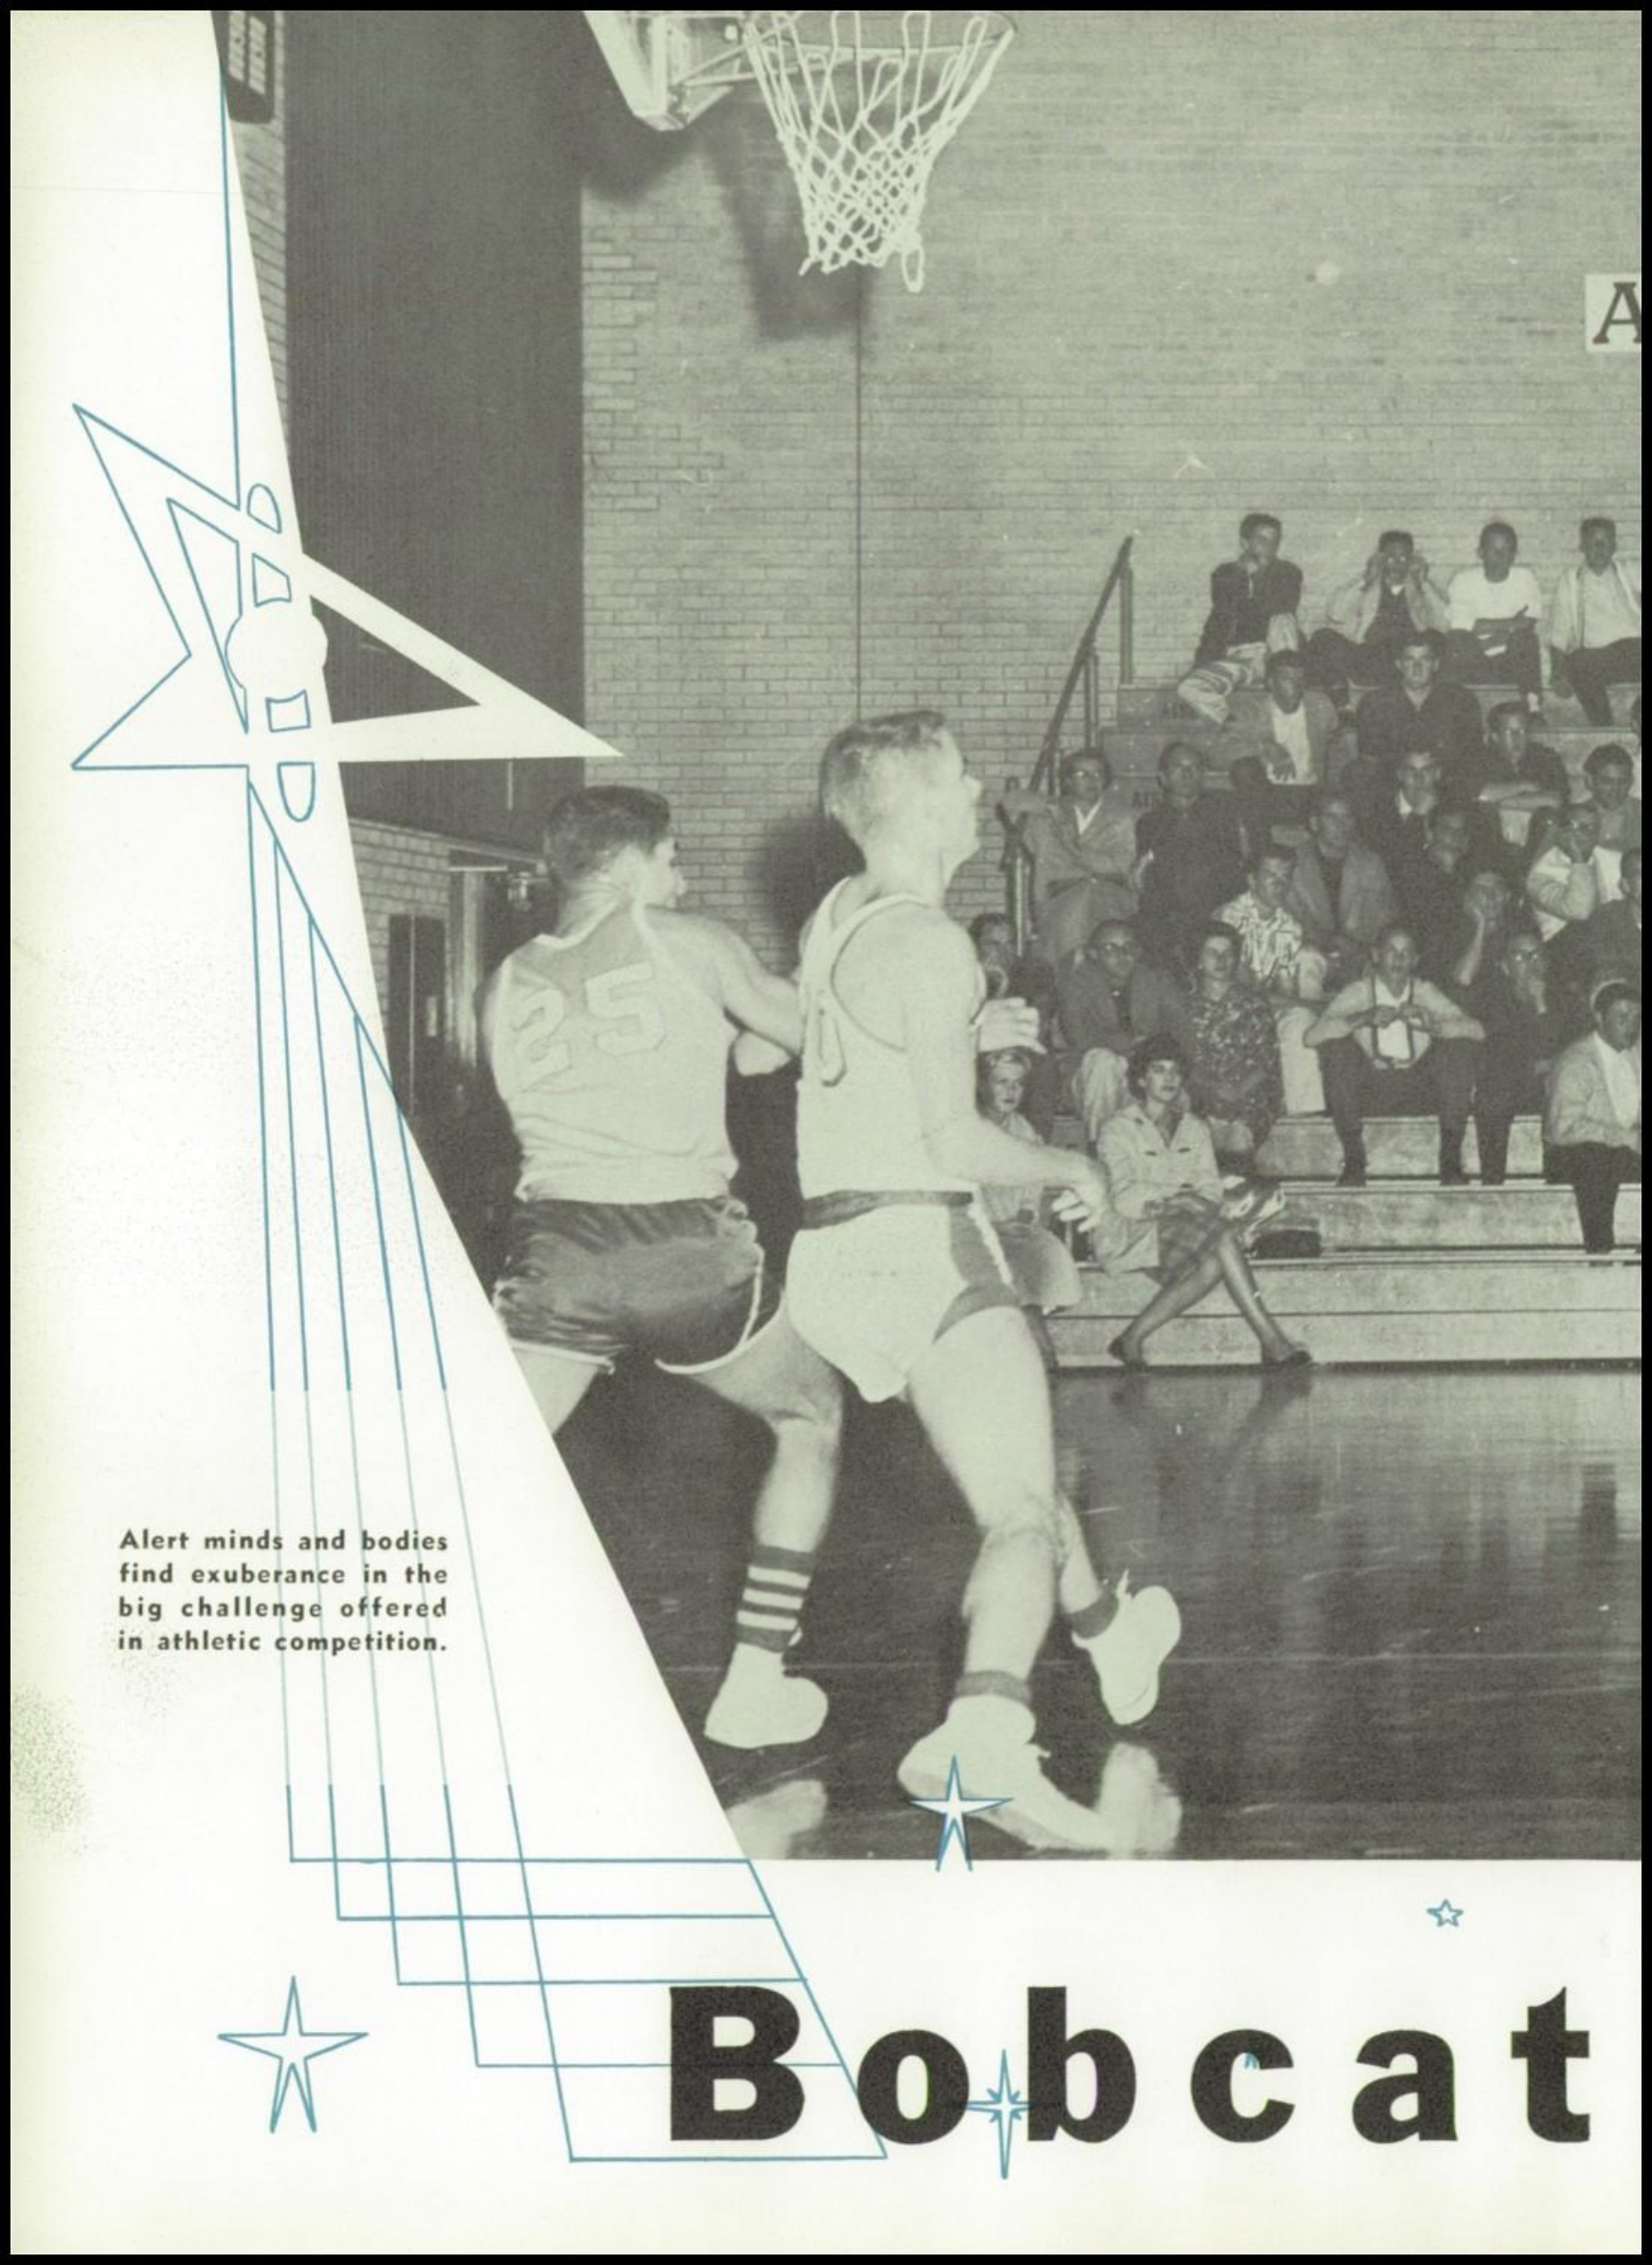

Nor must we forget the Luncheon Chez Louis, "Distribution des Prix", the annual event honoring the seniors! All club events feature the speaking of French, including little jokes regarding the school work of that day and casual conversation regarding the weather.

Overtones this year included sending postcards to Paris; celebrating the "twinning" of Phoenix and Orange, Vaucluse, France; and working to unite actively with the other French Clubs located in the Salt River Valley.

an average per game yardage of 57 while rolling up, offensively, an average of 186 yards. Starting explosively by dumping a good Carl Hayden team 26-14, the Centralites won early respect in the AA circuit and went on to their best season.

Central's Bobcats, in their second year of Class AA competition, compiled an impressive 6-2-1 record. Coach Martin Marich's club never rated lower than eighth in the state and closed out the season as No. 4.

TOUCHDOWN! Central's Bobcats overcome Hayden's goal line stand in season's first game. Cats won 26-14.

Sweet Revenge At Tucson

Catalina's Trojans were next on Central's list of victims. Coming from behind, Central knocked Catalina from the ranks of Arizona's top teams with a 14-13 victory. It was sweet revenge for the 25-0 pasting the Cats had absorbed the previous season. Backs Al Moutran, Clarke Espy, and Phil Jackson gave notice of things to come by running around and through the tough Trojan line, seemingly at will, during the whole game.

Flexing their muscles the Cats zeroed in on awed Camelback, subduing the Spartans 13-0. Central's massive line, led by Dave Areghini and Jim Bush held Camelback to minus-1 yards on the ground. Al Heller scored both of the Central Bobcats' touchdowns.

Central clashed with a fired-up Yuma team the following Friday. Sharp defense play by both sides kept the first half scoreless. Then Larry Marks tossed a pass to Espy for a 40-yard gain to Yuma's 15-then Moutran punched it over. Yuma spoiled things by roaring back for two quick touchdowns and a 13-7 victory.

Cats Blast Rincon, North

Central next took a trip to Tucson to blast the Rincon Rangers. In a wide open display of offensive and defensive power the Centralites came out with a 28-0 win. Early in the game Al Jefferies blocked a punt and recovered it for the initial score. Jackson, Howard Rudd, and Moutran rounded out the scoring.

An ill-fated journey to South Mountain, the state's No. 1 team, brought a non-conference loss of 28-0 to Central. Next was West High. This game was perhaps the season's most equal battle. Matched play for play, point for point, the game ended in a 6-6 tie.

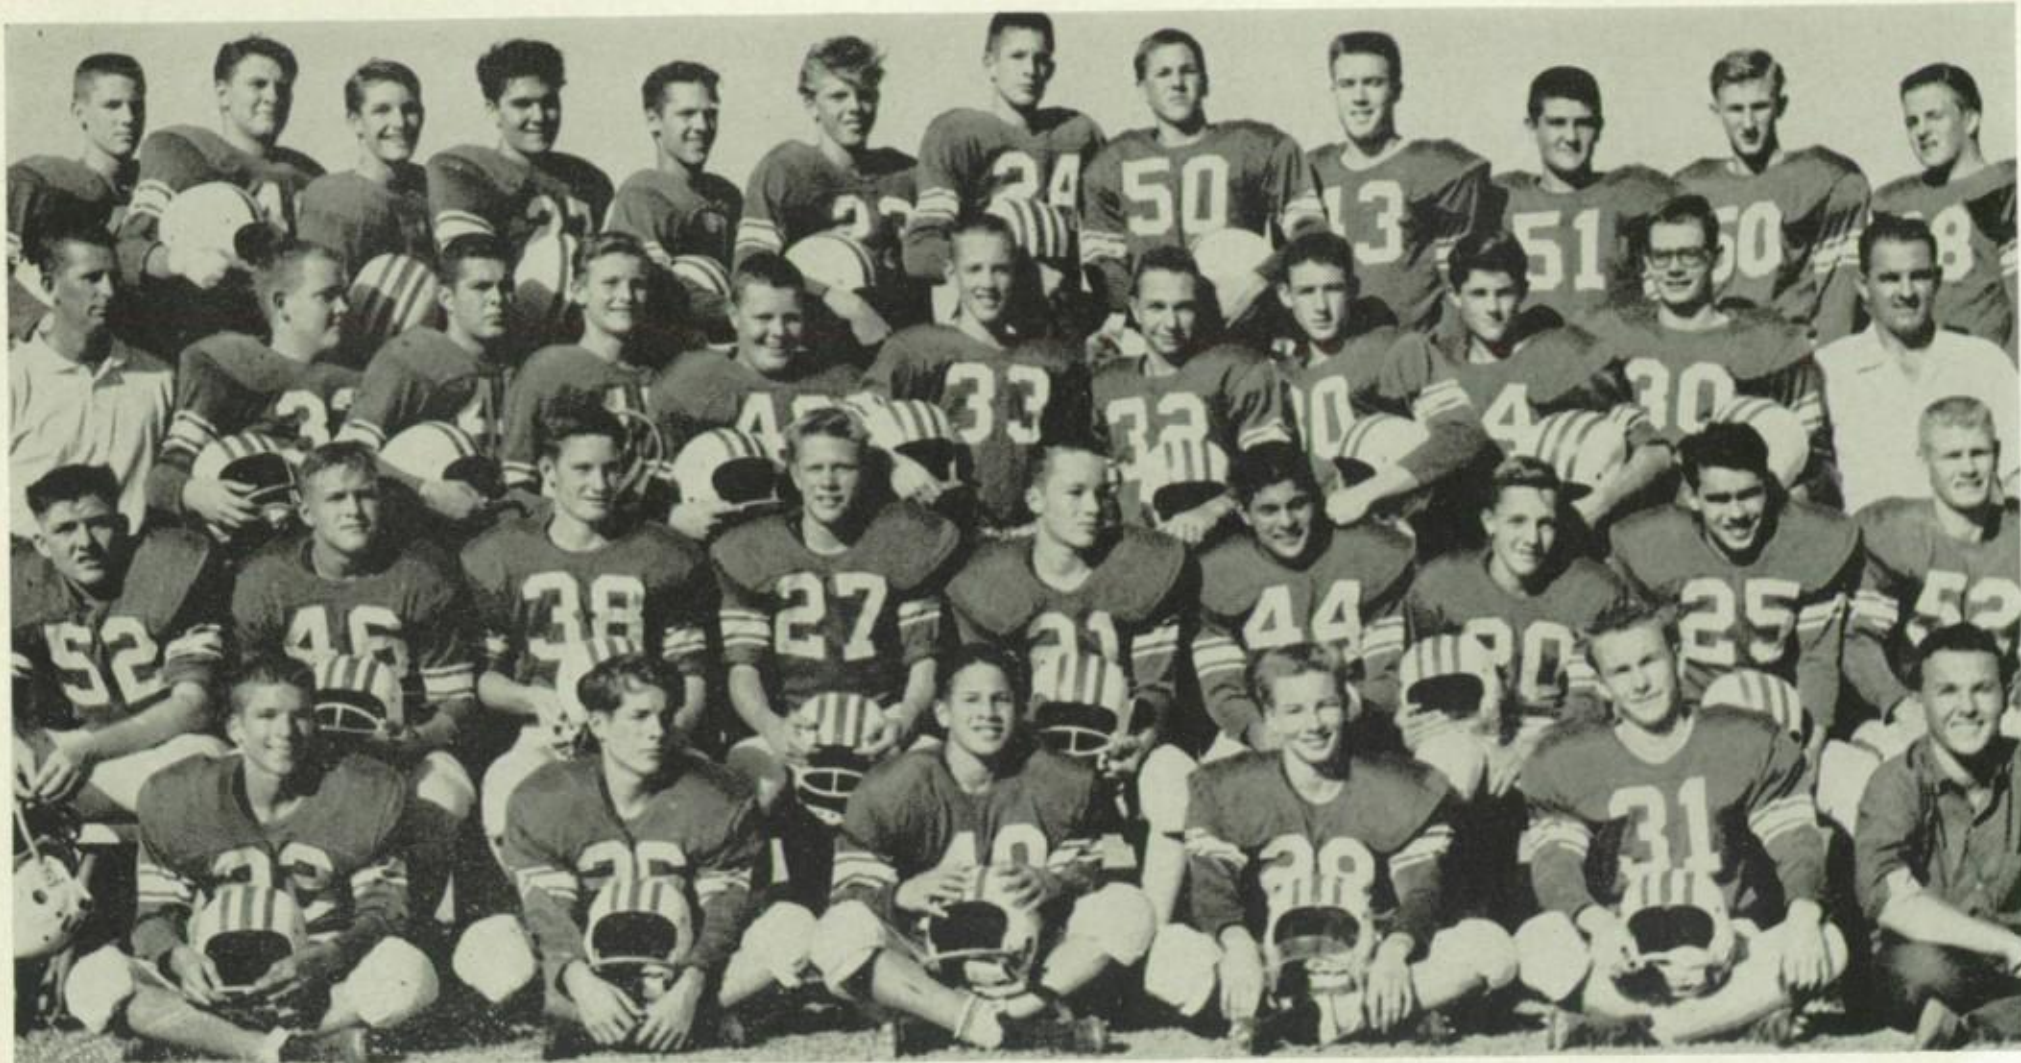

Central slaughtered the North High Mustangs 31-7 the following week. Espy scored two times on punt returns of 71 and 69 yards and again of a 65 yard dash up the middle while linemen Russ Magnusson, Areghini, and Earl Barry halted the Mustang's offensive plays.

The Bobcats closed out a good grid year by pounding Amphitheater into submission with a 34-0 victory. Coach Marich used all his substitutes, including the Junior Varsity squad.

WE WIN! Heller-Eaton Trophy, annual award to winner of Central-Hayden game, is presented by Mr. Heller. Magnusson and Areghini accept the prize for Central High.

8-0 For A Perfect Season

OOMPH! Phil Jackson says "Stop, Bud!" to stalwart Sparton.

Junior Varsity, under Coaches Bob Ruman and Phil Kemp, completed a rugged season without defeat. In their eight games the JV's held opponents scoreless in five games. Their greatest game perhaps was the 25-13 victory over the Jackrabbit team from Mesa High.

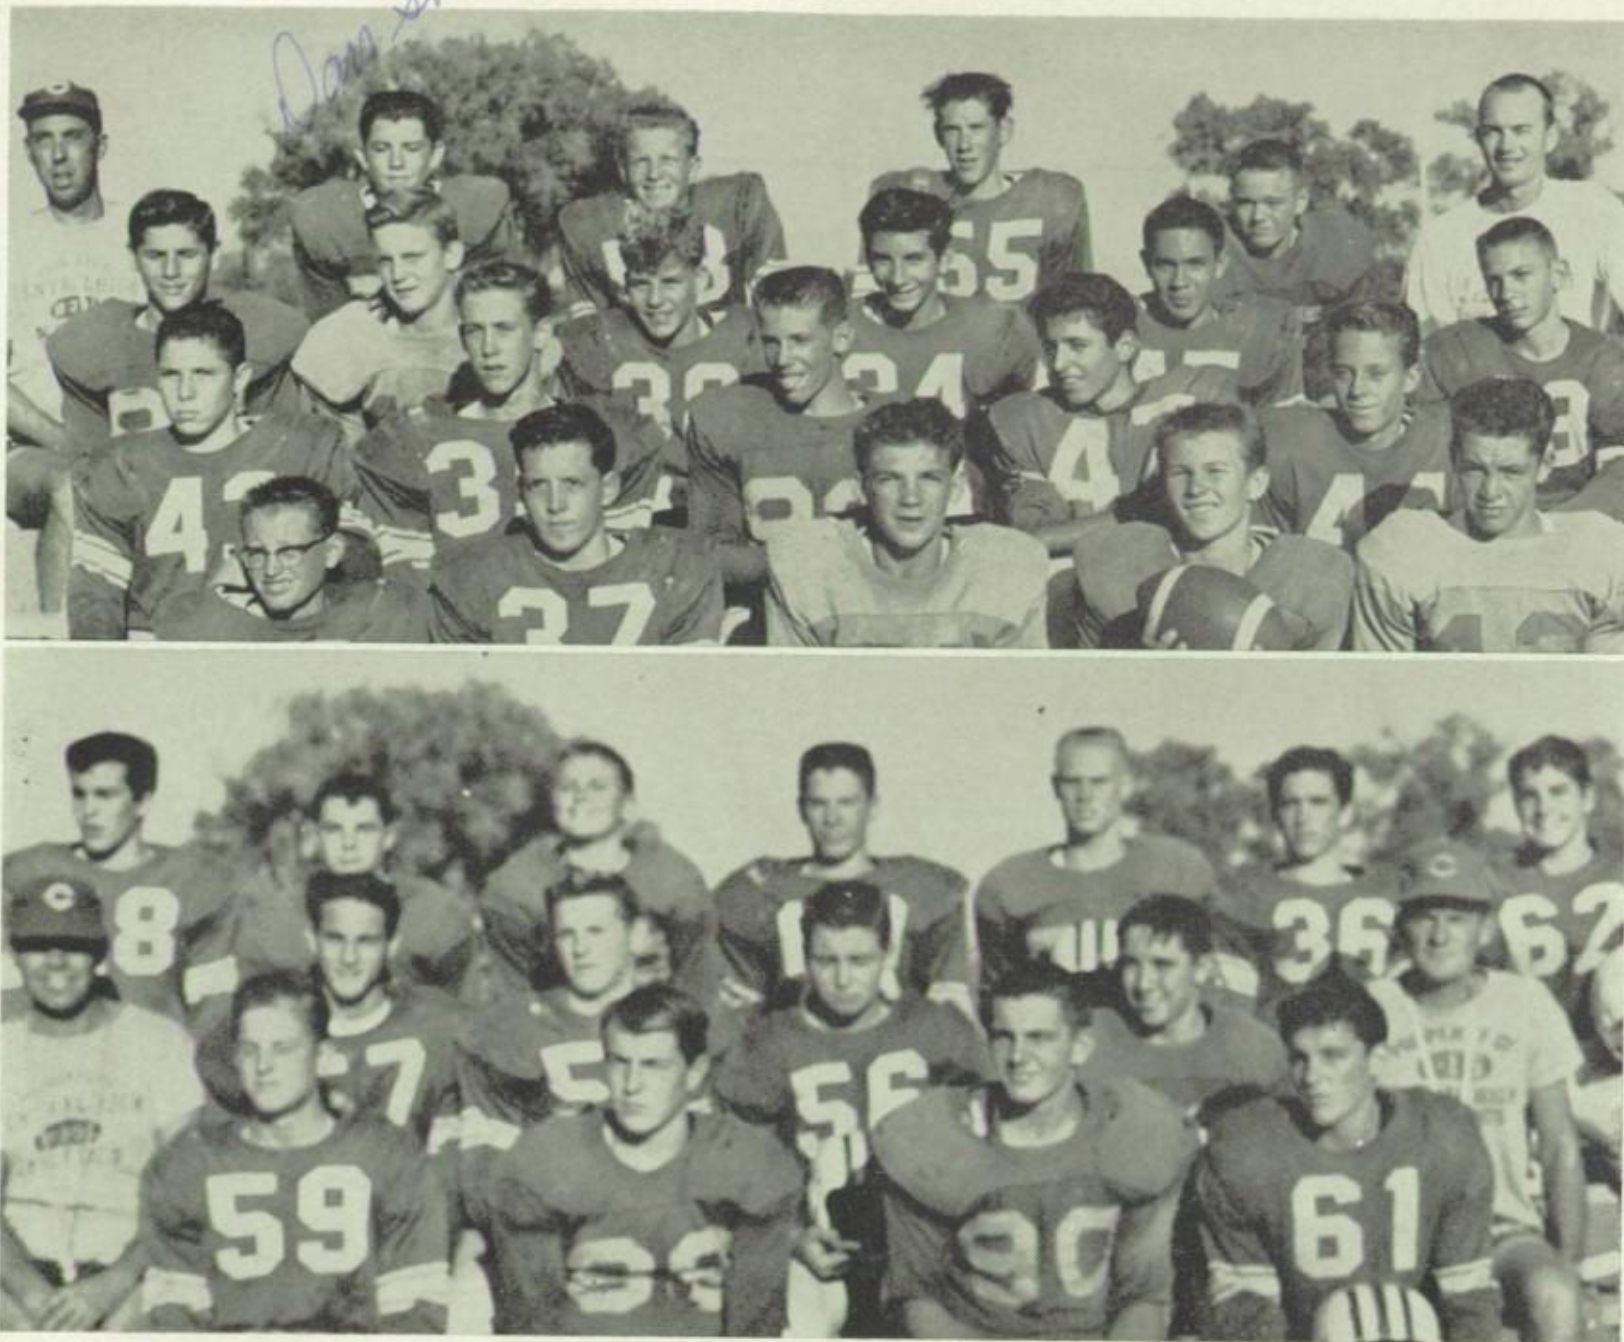

Outstanding performers were Jim Bostrom, who scored 56 points, Dave Whittaker, 42 points, and Mike Foley, scoring 36 points.

Members of the Junior Varsity squad did so well that many of them were promoted to the varsity games. Whittaker, Griffiths, and Gates played in more than one varsity game. The entire squad appeared in the final Varsity tilt against Amphitheater High School, where the speedy Juniors scored two touchdowns.

Nobody Outfought Them

Moral victories were mainly what the Frosh "A" group could boast for the season. Anyway they played 9 games and won all but 8! One explanation given was that the extended sessions find freshman students scattered through three different programs, making training difficult for coaches and candidates.

Nevertheless, many of the frosh athletes made fine progress. Recommended for advancement to the JV Squad were Jeff Orgill, Stuart Lane, Richy Pingatore, Gary Stull, Dick Boal, Jim Gentry, Ralph King, Tom Pansini, Bill Harshfield, Jim Heeter, Dave Jakes, Dick Lakey, Larry Musback, and Dan Walrath.

As usual, the "B" Squad frosh finished the season strong—winning its last three games but losing the first four. They made up in speed what they lacked in weight. Average age of Central High freshmen is under that of many neighboring schools, which could be evidence that time will be working for them.

Seven games were played against A and B teams, providing the youngsters with a fine variety of activity. Outstanding and heading for JV enrollment are Bernard, Cummings, King, McGuire, Sonntag, Luke, Myers, Fronstein, Porter, Normandin, Mason, Spector, other JV aspirants are Johnson, Smith, Liston.

BOBCAT VARSITY sets sights on a tough season. KNEELING: Manor, Engle, Dickson, Noble, Boyd, Mgr. Martin.

Entered in the powerful division of the state's AA circuit, Central High School's Bobcat hoopsters wound up with a 8-12 season of regular play and 1 of 2 in the state Class AA Tournament. Coach Ken Troutt's club was outclassed only once, by AA Champion Phoenix Union. Other toughies in Central's arena were powerful Camelback and North Phoenix.

Winning their opener, vs. Scottsdale, 37-32, the Bobcats next crushed West High 63-40. Dave Manor and John Lewis spearheaded the next triumph, a 64-55 attack against Tempe's improving but still outgunned Buffaloes.

Determined to make themselves known in this big and powerful Class AA League, Coach Troutt's aspiring hoopsters studied the theory of attack and defense; they practiced long and faithfully on the Central High hardwoods. They sharpened their foul line efficiency and and set out on a hot streak for victory.

BINGO! Ron Gowens loops a counter vs. Tempe. Bobcats'

Gary Noble and D. Dickson watch. Central won, 64-55.

Win Trail Was Long, Hard

Camelback threw cold water on Central's hot streak 45-48 to begin a long drouth of defeats that lasted into mid-January. During Christmas Holidays, the hapless Bobcats were booted about by the tall and terrific Coyotes 73-39.

St. Mary's had no charity for Central, either. They sneaked in enough last-quarter points to win 67-60. South Mountain's Rebels blasted Central 61-54, and victory hopes seemed almost gone. North Phoenix came very close to tossing in the towel when their star, Dairman was sidelined; but even they rallied to bop the faltering Bobcats by a heartbreaking 48-47.

Carl Hayden finally came to the rescue of victory-hungry Central, grudgingly giving up, 60-66. Yuma also obliged, 45-43, and Central seemed ready for better days on the hardwoods. But it was shortlived hope. They were to beat only Tempe. Five other clubs were to clobber Central High School's hard luck hoopsters.

OOOFH! It's a tall stretch that sends Dave Manor backward then upward to loft the ball over Buffalo opposition.

RIGHT: Dickson and Manor mean business in the scrap for tourney honors vs. St. Mary's. Latter won, 65-62.

We Win Upset, Then Lose

Still, the Bobcats qualified for the State AA Tourney, at ASU in Tempe. Moreover, they pulled the upset of the tournament by edging the District 1 champions, Catalina, 54-53. Hopes rode high in the Central-St. Mary's second round, only to be dashed when the Knights won, 65-62 in the game's last seconds of play.

Graduates leaving the basketball team will be Dave Manor, leading scorer and All-City forward; Dick Dickson and Gary Noble, outstanding rebound specialists; also hard working John Lewis, Ron Gowans, Bill Boyd, and Dick Walker will head for college competition play.

Talented lettermen who will be the nucleus of the 1960-61 season include Ned Sawyer, Larry Engel, Lynn Wright, and Dick Stevens. In addition, several outstanding prospects from Coach Phil Kemp's fine JV team will be ready to battle for starting positions on the Varsity. Central's prospects in AA look very bright.

Their 17-3, Valley's Best

Central's Junior Varsity basketball team had a smashing season, winning 17 out of 20 games. The Bobcat JVs had the best record of all junior hoop teams in the Valley, guided by their competent Coach Philip Kemp.

Randy Lindner, a freshman, was the leading scorer and rebounder. He also had the best percentage at the free throw line. Other top scorers were Jim Walker, Ray Hunter and Steve Griffith. The local lads lost basketball games only to West High and North Phoenix.

In quick succession Central knocked off Indian School 50 to 40; Scottsdale 40-39. Next they lost to West 49-38, beat Tempe 42-27, Camelback 49-36, St. Mary's 49-46; then they lost a hot sizzler to North Phoenix, 47-42.

The sharpshooting Centralites slaughtered Carl Hayden 60-49, Yuma 49-42, Phoenix Union 46-42, and Camelback again, 72-56.

Carl Hayden next fell 52-43, Tempe 66-54, South 62-54, North 59-43, Tempe 66-54. They stomped on Yuma 51-42 and closed out the season by beating Rincon juniors, 51-46

STRATOSPHERE-dweller Troy Collier of Phoenix Union had no charity for Bobcat Gary Noble in continuing the Coyotes' undefeated string toward AA championship.

bers: Rooker, Hubert, Turner, Blake, Borris, Vyne, Liston, and Carter. Distance running requires plenty of stamina.

Having taken steps to improve their style, the Bobcats of the Cross-Country squad took steps also to come out for a share of the three-way first place tie. This was Central's second year of competition in the popular track event, with their coach, William Thompson, directing.

They'll top all competition in 1960-61 Coach Thompson believes, so impressed was he by the improvement made. Carter, Borris, Hubert, and Liston were two-year lettermen in cross-country, all seniors excepting Hubert. Team won 9, lost 3 for third in the 12-team League.

DIVER! Dickson's main purpose at City Meet was to top that bar. He leaps 6'2". RIGHT: Jack Brown gets the ## Scores Don't Always Tell...

Although the record showed Bobcat tracksters had a 7-loss, 2-win season, the squad far from discouraged. It was far more successful than the score showed. Seven school records fell in 13 events, with outstanding performances following one after another.

Outstanding were John Rooker, Van Torrey, Dick Dickson, and Ed Martensen. They were at the top in their respective events. Highlights of the season included fine showings at City Relays, Glendale Invitational, ASU Relays, and our Central High School Relays.

Batter Up... Play Ball!

SAFE BY A MILE! Well, enough, anyway, to beat out the Carl Hayden effort at third base. Bobcat is Gerry Rose. Central High won this game.

Central's varsity baseball team brought home the best record in our school's three year history with a 13 win and 4 lost record. Each of the four games lost were by one run. Central came in second in the district, but did not qualify to compete in the State Tournament.

They were in there pitching with seniors

Lynn Castle, Dave Manor, and junior Jim Neeley. Among the leading Central batters were David Phasley, Al Moutran, Joe Geiger.

Although the Bobcats will lose six senior members they should be strong next year with nine returning lettermen. Coach Bob Ruman predicts that Central will sparkle in 1961.

JVs Win 16, Lose Only 2

The Great American Game found enthusiastic followers among sophomores and juniors who turned out in large numbers for the Bobcat JV baseball squad. Hard practice and a fair share of talent paid off. The team was able to post a 16 win, 2-lost record. Sophomores especially showed strength on the squad, a very favorable omen for the varsity coaches.

Leading batters among the JV baseballers were Bob Bentle, Gordon Everitt, Steve Griffith, and Bill Wise. Coach Phil Kemp was confident that most of his players would qualify for solid positions on the 1961 varsity. The players were confident, also; they are looking forward to a high place in AA League finals next season!

SPECIAL delivery comin' up! Varsity Pitcher Dave Manor lets go with a fast ball at crucial point in the game. Manor was consistently strong as a hurler.

WATCH IT! Phasley (22) slams in for a slide while Dunn (20) and Neeley attempt to tag him during a regular practice session.

30 Came Out & Remained

Thirty Bobkittens showed up for baseball practice this spring . . . and stayed for the whole season. Moreover, they played 16 games and won all but 12! They tied one team, and lost six of their games by a heart-breaking one point. But they never once stopped trying!

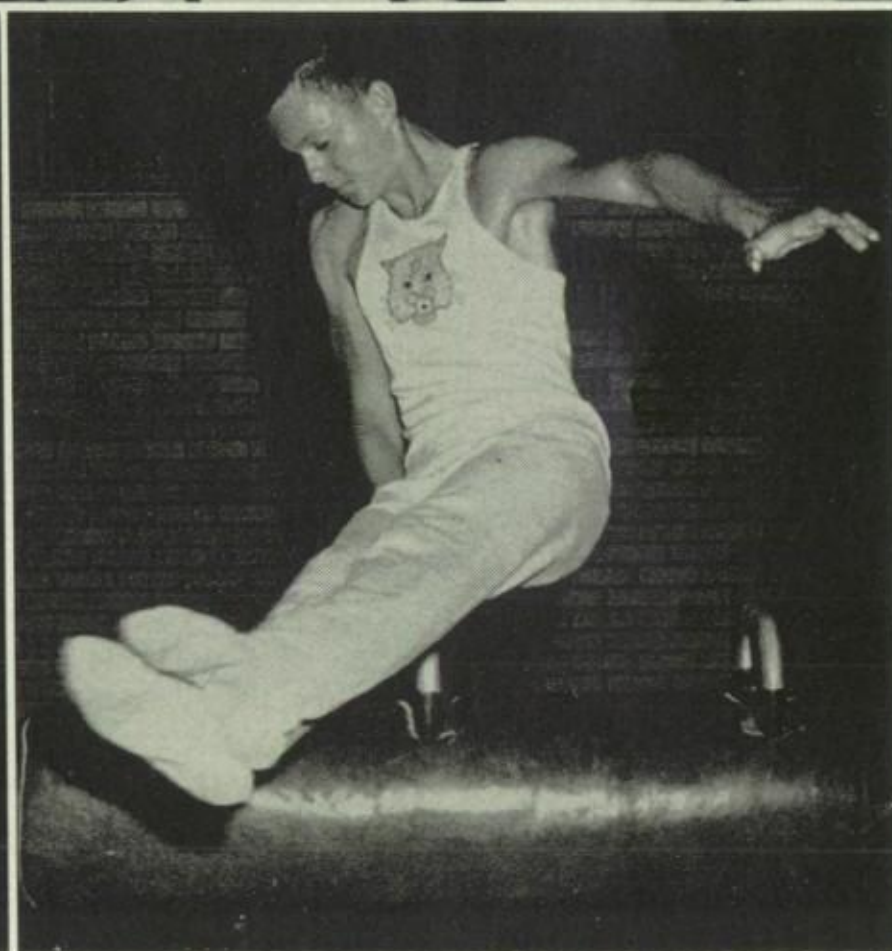

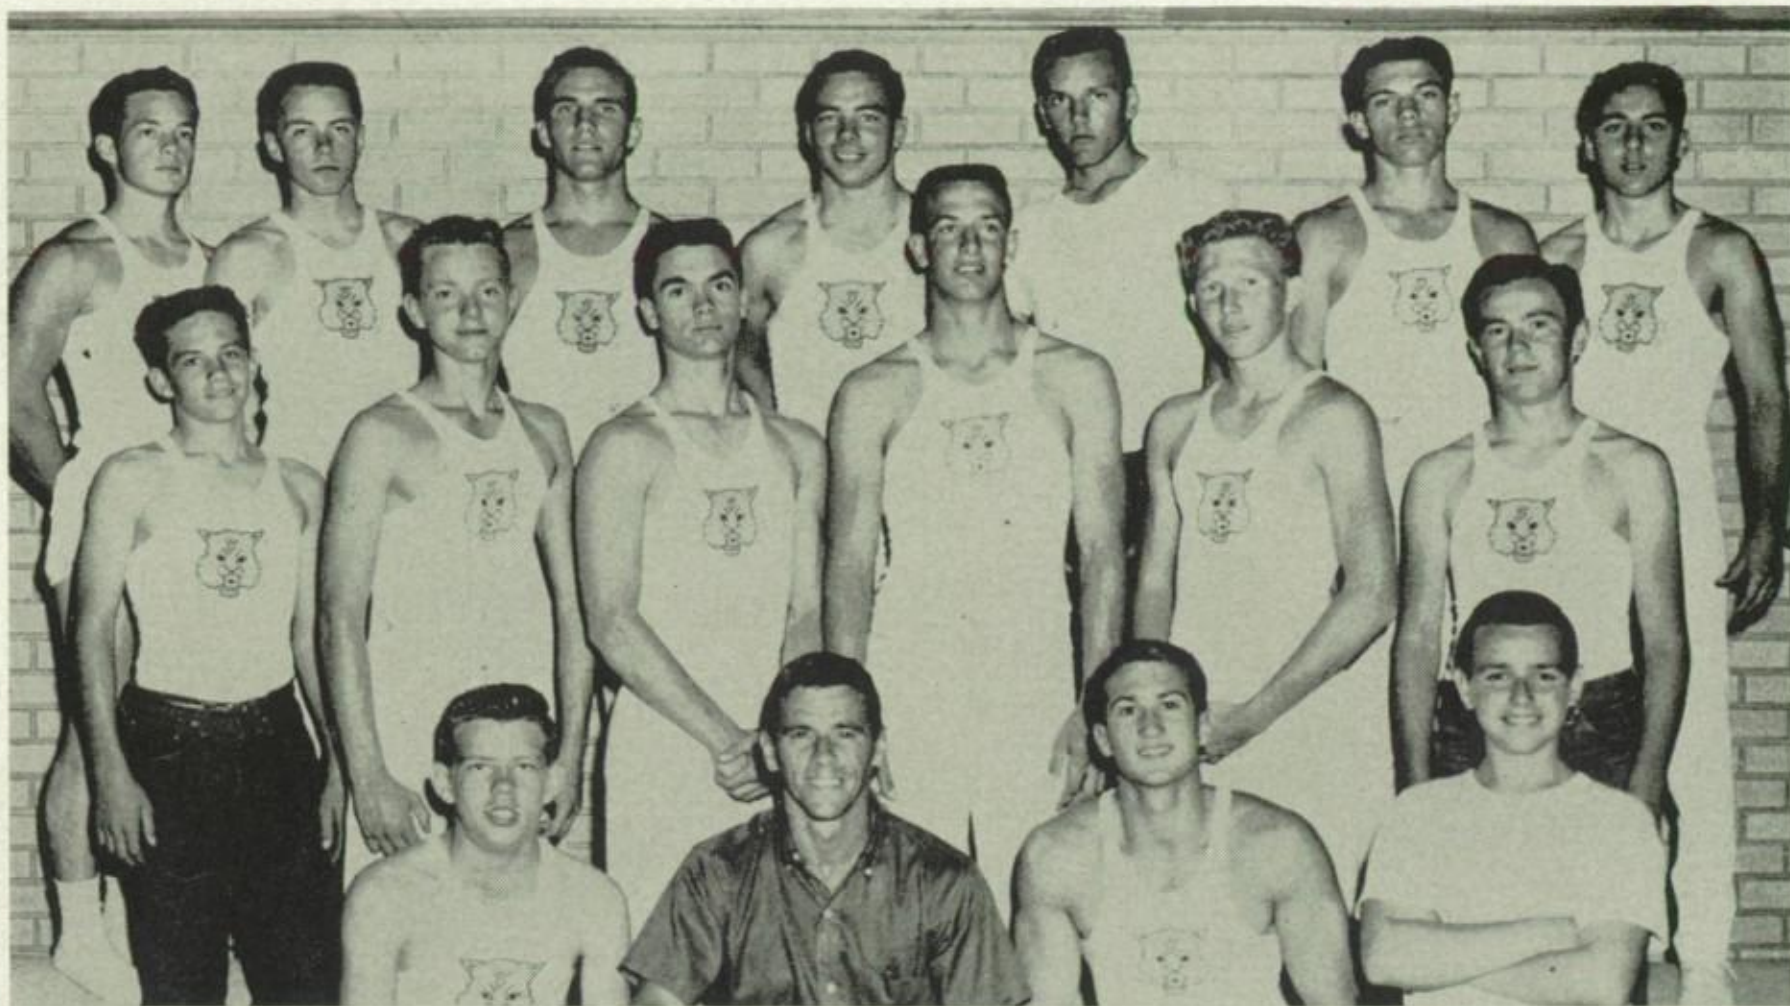

Four of the Frosh games they lost by only two runs; thus, of 12 games lost, only 14 points spelled the difference in victory and defeat. One thing never lost, however, is the spirit of good sportsmanship. The lads got good experience, too, for 1961 JV and Varsity.

YOU HOLD the bat thusly! Coach Joe Garcia gives the good word to freshman baseballers on how to bunt successfully. KNEELING are Sankey, Ricker, Smith, McNoran. STANDING: Smith, Rogel, Bernard, Holmes, Sherer, Lindstrom, and Hershfield. Al Hoeffel was the co-coach of the Frosh.

With Greatest Of Ease . . .

Flex your muscles, strong man, but don't be too sure you're the greatest! Boys trained in gymnastics learn that co-ordination and agility are more important than huge, bulging biceps, if you want to win points in a gymnastics contest. Coach Ron Amster, a champion in the field, guided an enthusiastic group to a superior record.

Equipment necessary to acquire that proficiency is available at the gymnasium. Try your hand on one of these: side horse, long horse, flying rings, trampoline, parallel bars, horizontal bar. Some of athletes excell in all of these, such as Terry Vance, Dave Hogan and Dick Elardo, rings; Chuck King has proved to be outstanding on the trampoline.

GOLF TEAM members line up for a picture before heading for the links. STANDING are Stancik, Brecheisin, Blanchard, Frank, Mr. Zorn, Zivney, Burton, Boutell, Wright.

KNEELING: Levitas, Jenkins, D. Johnson, and J. Johnson.

Swinging High, Low To Win

Impressive is a good word for the record Central's Golf Team achieved in 1959-60. Losing only one match to West High School, the team could be ranked no lower than second in the state AA high school league.

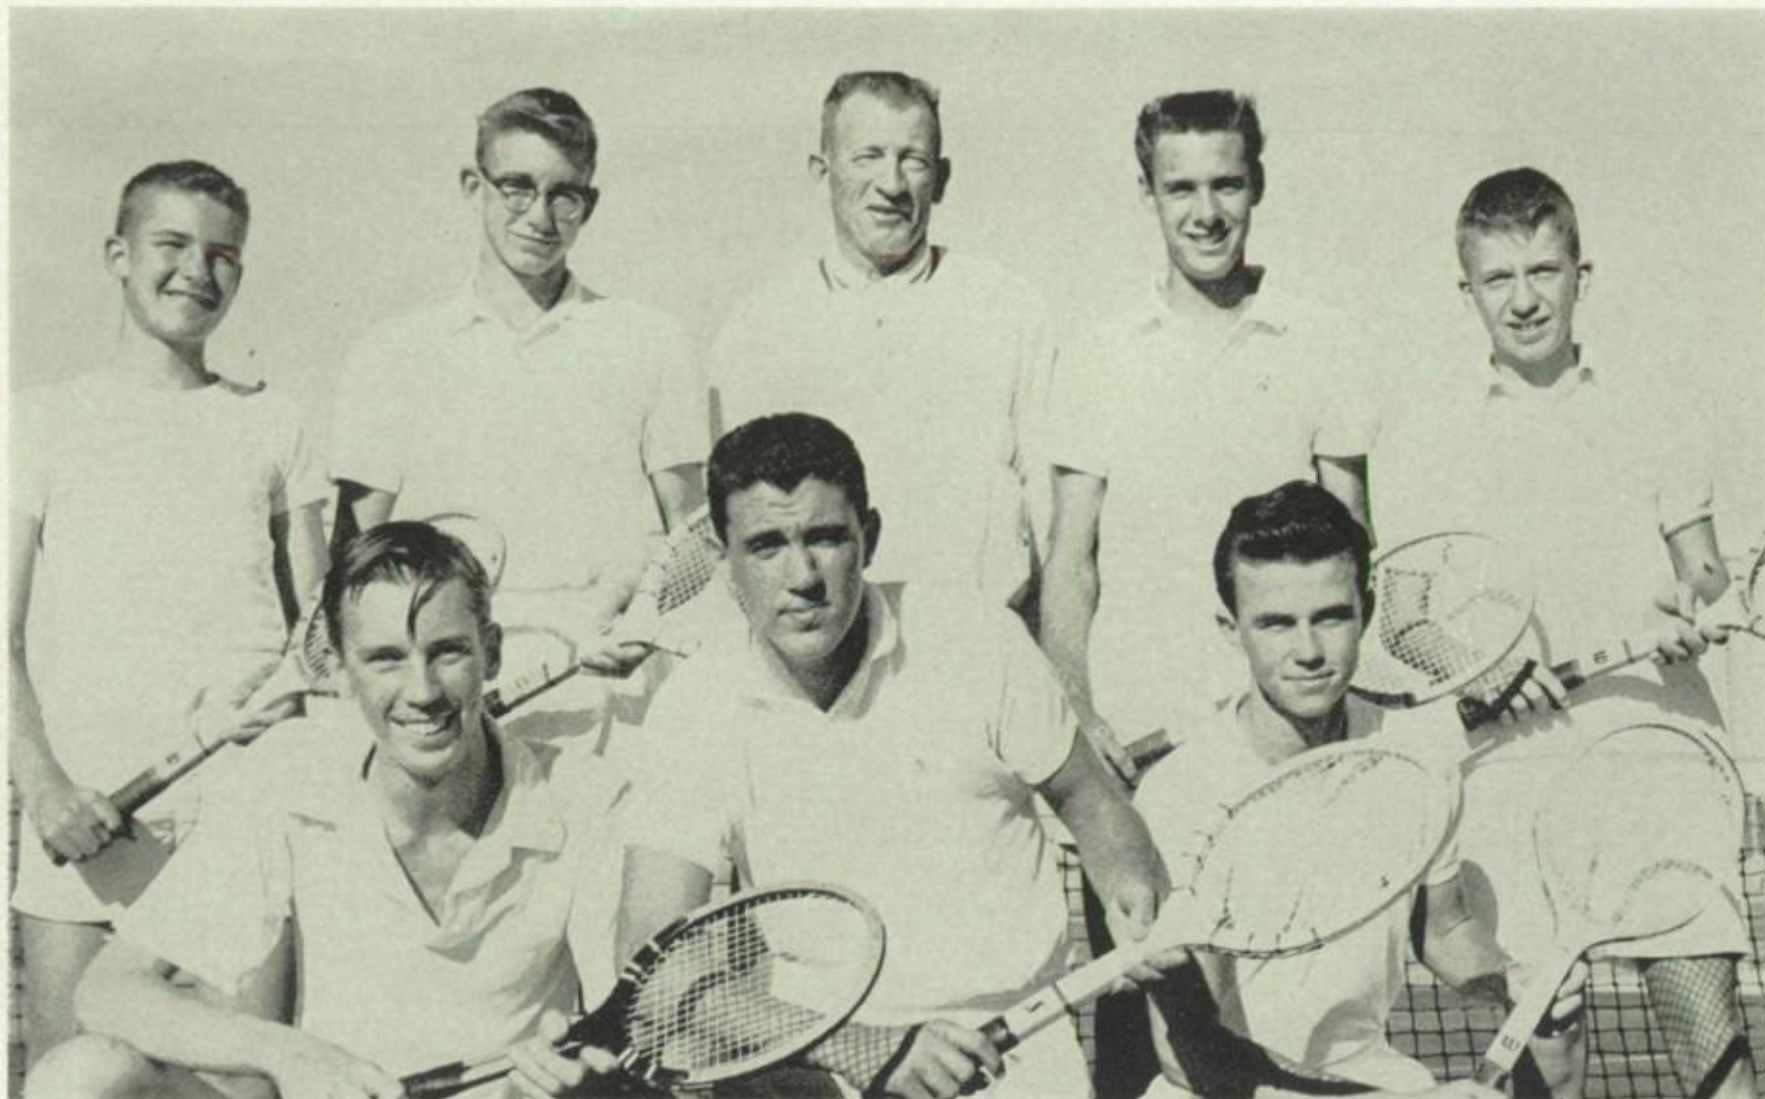

George Boutell, State Junior Champion, has consistently led the team with a low 70 average. With only two senior lettermen leaving this spring, (Dave Levitas and Dennis Stancik) the Bobcat golfers should have a banner season next year. State honors appear probable.

Central's golf varsity consisted of Boutell, Mason Fran, Charles Burton, Lynn Wright, Stancik, Levitas, and Jim Bott. Coach Harvey Zorn, who doubles as head of the Music Department when not swinging a golf club, plays a good game in the high 70's and low 80's.

LIKE THIS! Coach Zorn gives Bobcat star Boutell a tip on stance and swing. Boutell is Junior Champion in Arizona. Practice is the secret to perfection, Central's golfers are advised. Hence, most team members get into the swing of it each day and often double on weekends. Encanto Park links are popular with the Bobcat divot diggers.

TENNIS CHAMPS with victory smiles are Pace, Berkenkamp, Parker. STANDING are Eberhard, Blende, Coach

Carnahan, Meng, and Poe. They gave their opponents no mercy. Berkenkamp became Southwest Jr. champion.

High in the stratosphere of victory this year were Coach Chris Carnahan's varsity racquet-tees. As of May 1 they had won 15 matches and lost none. Moreover, four of the top five players remained undefeated in individual matches for 1959-1960. The team won every event in the District Tournament competition.

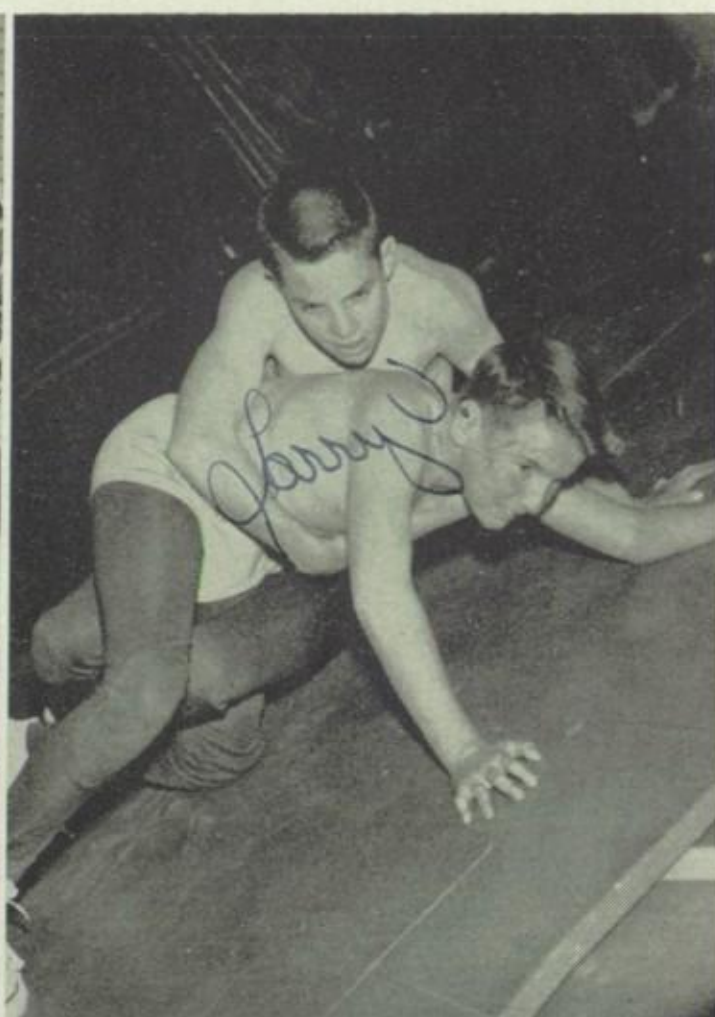

Central's team totaled more points alone than did all the other 16 schools combined . . . for an aggregate of 84 to opponents' 6. Prospects were high for the state championship to be decided later in May. Tucson High was the only visible threat. The ladder: Meng, Berkenkamp, Pace, and Eberhard, in that order.

They Can Swing A Good Deal

HARDWARE with a meaning! Charlie Berkenkamp and Roy Meng look over a few of their tennis trophies. Both players are ranked in the top 10 in Southwest Junior Championship ratings. Meng also holds a top-10 rating in the men's Southwest division.

WHATTA MAN! Marks and Reynolds admire the brute strength of Areghini; the boys scored for Central at the State Meet in Yuma. RIGHT: JV wrestlers were (kneeling) Vorbrich, Young, Hudson, Morgan, Pingitore, Rhodes, Ware. TOP: Bernard, Stolfa, Jarko, Gilliam, Sanderson,

They Rock, Rattle And Pin

Central wrestlers had an up-and-down season, winning four, losing seven matches. Consistent winners were seniors Al Heller, Dave Areghini, Larry Marks, and Dan Reynolds. A large junior group will make opponents battle for scores next season. Camelback, Scottsdale, Sunnyslope, and South Mountain squad lost to the agile Bobcat bouncers.

As a result of the District Meet involving Central, North, PUHS, and Winslow, Bobcats John Richie, 95 lbs., Bob Mizner, 112; Marks, 120; Reynolds, 133, Tom Fife, 175, and Areghini, heavyweight, qualified for the State Meet. Reynolds (11-6-0) and Marks (12-3-2) took third places in the State finals; Areghini (11-5-1) took fourth in the heavyweight class.

AW, YOU CAN DO BETTER! Prisoner Blende shows no concern for the evil intent that might be in Ed Rolnick's mind in the Bobcat's Beat Yuma rally. Below:

Muscular Money-Makers

Athletics did not occupy all of the waking hours of Letterman's Club. Nor did their school studies keep the boys from a series of activities that continued to pour money into the club treasury. Among other money-making schemes this year, the boys: sold candy at Christmas season; sold pop, candy, and popcorn at the games; sold the popular grey and red derbies at pep rallies and on Color Days.

Meetings were attended enthusiastically by those who wanted to avoid paying fines for unexcused absence or tardies. Mostly good-natured horseplay and fun featured the gatherings; however the fellows had a few serious moments when they planned projects. It was a courteous gesture, for example, to send flowers for the opening of the new Vice Principal's Office. Earl Barry was Letterman president.

way, Lolles. ROW 4: D'Anzelo, Lockey, Young, Bergman, Crecelius, L. Blum, Reese, Randall, Veeck, DeVaughn, Hersom. ROW 5: Pabst, Abrams, Sheeley, Gentry, Hart, Crisman, Miller, Shaffer, Jones, and Stineman. Many after-school activities kept GAA hopping all year long.

Participate! That's the way to develop an interest in sports and to win friends at Central! Led by Instructors Sanders and Mitten, members of Girls' Athletic Association enrolled over 100 girls to take active interest in various sports sponsored by GAA. Sagebrush Swing, the Rodeo Dance, was a GAA highlight. Frequent play days kept everybody on her toes.

Improved footwork and co-ordination paid dividends for Girls' Tennis Team. They proved invincible in the Valley and held the No. 1 spot at press time. Youthful Mary Lou Branigan directed the girl racqueteers. Ladderwise they were Adrienne Cotterman, Jane Shar-bough, Cathy Carpenter, Cathy Fletcher, and Betty Randall, who competed for state honors.

CHAMPS are these tennis stars: Farquer, Sharbaugh, Fletcher, Coach Mary Louise Branigan, Randall, Cotterman, and Carpenter.

Good Sports Are These!

ROBIN HOOD, we're ready! Proficient in an ancient art are Maglich, McKinzie, Wilcox, Peake, Hill, Vanatter, and Wahl.

First place in the National Winter Interscholastic Archery Tourney went to Central's fine Archery team directed by Mrs. Mitten. They placed first also in the NAA tourney and hope to win state honors in Tucson. Outstanding with bow and arrow are Mary Hill, Claudia Willcox, Diane Trask, Kay Vanatter.

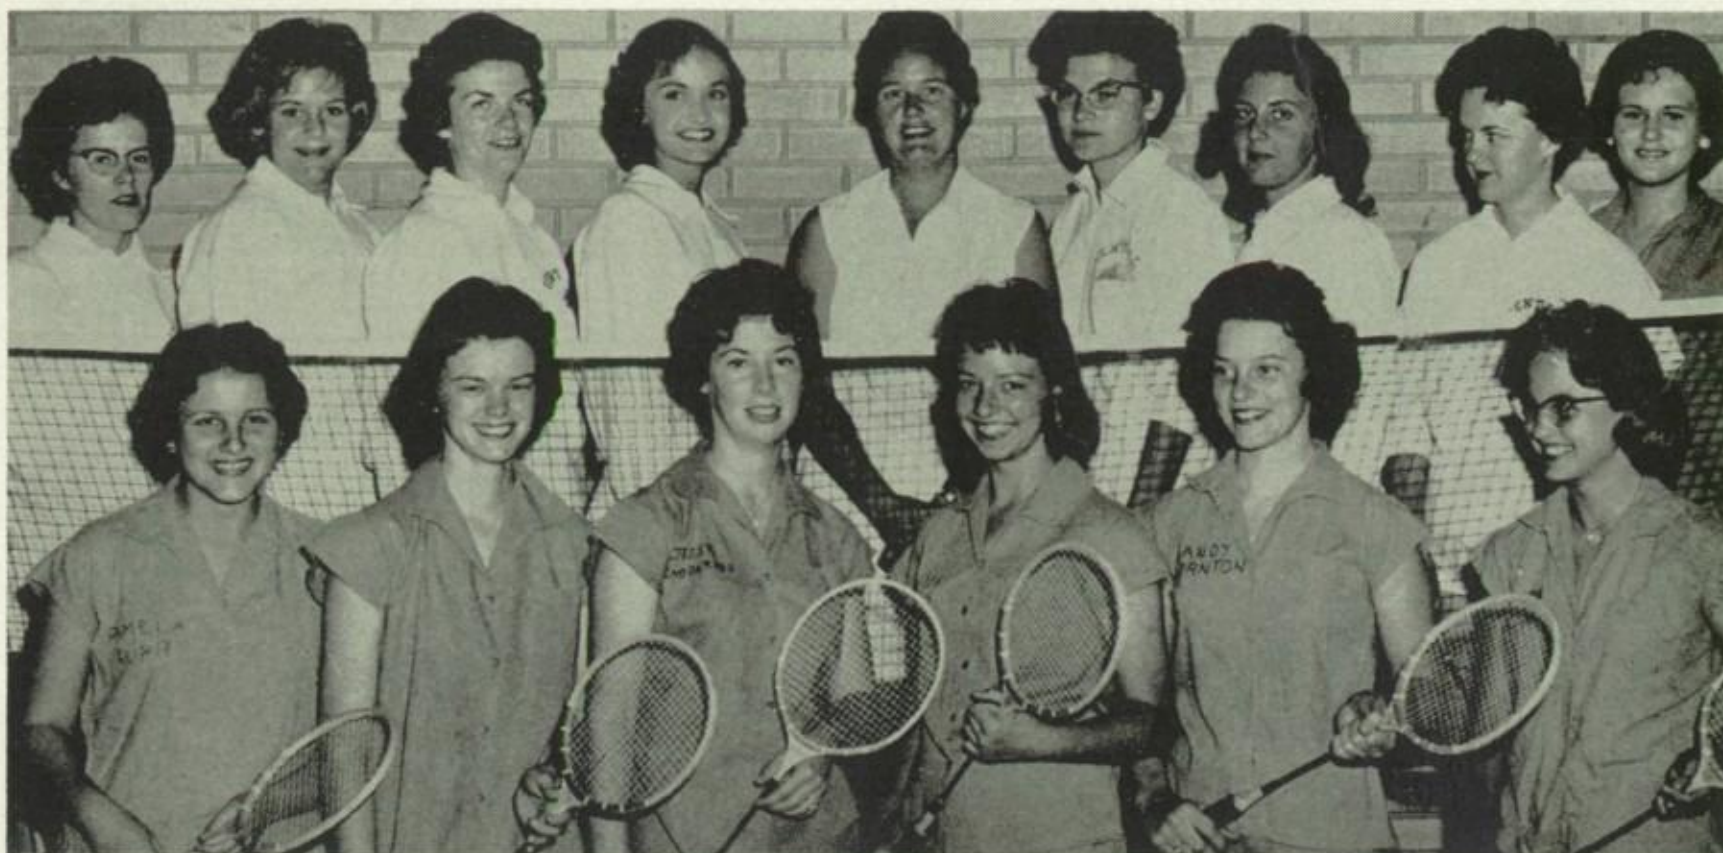

Striving to express feelings through dancing is the aim of Modern Dance Class. Although at times dancers appear to be sweeping dust from the floor, they are doing an interpretative dance. They appeared in several assembly programs and participated in the first interschool dance festival at West High.

MODERN DANCERS struck this pose at assembly appearances. FRONT: Oseran, Felix, Young, Blythe, Super, Rudolph, McClanathan. CENTER: J. Christensen, Eisenbeiss, Martin, Soto, Lunt. BACK: Bonner, Miller, Fashbaugh, Moore, B. Christensen, Benner, Cohn, Stahlber, Coleman, Freeman, Stiles. Miss Colleen Cook directed.

WITH THE SITUATION (and racquets) firmly in hand are Badminton Team members (bottom) Furr, Erickson, Snodgrass, Lollis, Thornton, Halfin. TOP: Cooper, Farrier, North, Hayden, Rudolph, Painter, Wilson, and Harris.

Early Girls Get That Bird!

Usually it is the early bird that gets the worm . . . but in the case of those versatile badminton gals, it is the early girl that gets the bird! Promptly at 7 a.m. daily the girls hop into PE uniforms and give the badminton birds a spin. Directed by Miss Sanders, the team hopes to place high in the state tourney at ASU. Leading the ladder is Jan Cooper, followed by Sally Rudolph, Nancy Hayden, Jan Wilson and Becky Farrier, alternate play.

Golf found its devotees among the girls, too. This year the Girls' Golf Team hoped to repeat last year's triumph when they won the state trophy. Judy Loftfield rated as No. 1 in Arizona amateur play and Carol Smith No. 2. In Flight B, Fredda Kalina stood highest. Other competent team members were Mary Wolfe and Judy Johnston. The girls were well guided by Coach Joyce Sanders who didn't mind that 7 A.M. deal in the least!

DANCERS creating a geometric pattern are Miller, Moore, Coleman, Stites, Young, and Felix.

Operation Old Glory won for Central High students widespread, enthusiastic support.

America Lauds Scholars

America's renewed interest in her scholars throws increased emphasis on the importance of groups such as the National Honor Society. Based on a nation-wide standard stressing citizenship, scholarship, and leadership, NHS takes an honored position in every American high school. Although the society's activities are limited to a few spring-term gatherings, their particular eminence never lacks luster.

Special recognition was given National Honor Society at a gathering Sunday, April 24, in the Cafeteria. At that time new members were inducted. Parents, faculty, and fellow students were there to approve. Society sponsors included Mrs. Redewill, Mr. Ellis, and Mr. Ridenour. Carol Sullivan was president, Other NHS officers were Sidney Schwensen, Diane Newmark, Judy Hauskins, Mike Weiss.

PARNASSUS CLUB—(Lower Group) BOTTOM: Seabury, Evertsen, Buross, Aftergut, Martin, Oseran, Cohn, Hauskins, Isaacson. CENTER: Karansky, O'Malley, Pearson, Isenberg, Barker, Miller, Stone. TOP: Johnson, Mardian, Schatt, Brand, Liston, Tuchler, Brenneisen, Gilbert. GROUP II—BOTTOM: Pardee, Maisner, Hondrum, Jones, Pansini, Blair, Williams, Elliott. ROW 2: Smith, Davidson, Blumberg, Gregory, Andersen, Wolf, Johnson, Strock, Weinstein. ROW 3: Peden, Dickerson, Fletcher, Erickson, Driskell, Brown, Kessler, Kobel, Isenberg, Cress. TOP: Newmark, Kovacovich, Pratt, Eglinton, Farnell, Helms, Stalnaker, Keilly, Brown, Miller, and Lazzari.

Scholarship Counts Here!

"High ideals are the aims of these students. No low grades for them! Plans for the future include scholarships and years of college for these top students. Musical, athletic, and artistic ability also mark these Central High citizens as outstanding, Parnassus, an honorary group, stresses the value of scholarship above all.

Parnasses is an organization for students who have a 1.5 grade point average in their four top subjects. Many of these students are also members of the National Honor Society. Central is proud of these Bobcats who help make their school one of the highest ranking institutions scholastically and in other ways.

*Some to college...
some to work*

We hope you will find a way to college, for your life will be fuller and richer if you do.
For those of you who must enter the business world now, let us recommend that you open a savings account immediately — however small — at the Valley Bank.

As you progress in your business life, you'll need bank credit. And when a banker makes his first loan to young people, he is guided mainly by the banking record they have established in the past.

Diane Newmark, Patti Cohn, and Bill Boyd. Salutatorian for the Class of '60 is Barbara Phillips, who also has the brightness recipe. They'll be honored on June 3rd.

Seniors Think... Also Eat, Drink

LIVIN' IT UP were these Bobcats at the first annual Senior Banquet April 28 in Hotel Westward Ho. Class Wills, the Senior Mosts, and excellent food highlighted the evening's fun. Almost 400 showed up at the Thursday night affair, including Kaye Evans, Carol Duprest, Tom Moore, Gaye Eshom, and (in background) Joan Ehrlich, Bonita Aftergut, Frances Martin, Bruce Spector, Diane Newmark, and Phil Blende.

... Be Seein' You!

Ken,

It's been fun knowing you this year at school and at church.

Good Luck always

P.S. Stop waking up people when they sound asleep.

Ken,

To a real swell
guy, who has a wonderful personality as well as a wonderful sense of humor.

Love ya! (literally)

Ken -
It has been a real pleasure knowing you the year I hope we can be as good friends next year as we are this year. Best of luck
